Greetings From

MILESTONES 2009

Dear Girls,

As the Milestones Editors gathered last spring, amidst the hectic final weeks of the school year, we sat in our circle and searched for inspiration for the 2008-2009 yearbook. We knew we needed anything was to define the very existence of a Harpeth Hall girl colors and pictures and fonts, but what we wanted more than through it all. Glancing out the large window into the junior parking lot as girls filed into their cars and raced not-so-precariously over the speed bumps, it hit us: the perfect theme. We can think of no better metaphor for the life of a Harpeth Hall girl than a long journey down a winding road. The far-off and desperately sought-after college destination awaits us, but, in the meantime, we learn, laugh, love, and grow as we make our way through it all. With this in mind, we have chosen this year's theme to be "ON THE ROAD AGAIN," as we put in print the story of another year in these halls.

Just like the tests, the term papers, the teenage dramas, and the heartbreaks that mark our Harpeth Hall years, a flat tire or a fender bender is just one small obstacle that, although stressful, can be moved past. You change the tire or you patch up the paint, and soon enough you're back on the road. In the grand scheme of things, these little "pot-holes" are secondary to the greater meaning of the road-trip, or, in our case, our journey through the hallways of Harpeth Hall. As we travel from the 5th grade pod to the Senior House, what we remember are the good moments, the lessons we have learned, the company we have kept, and those priceless afternoons spent belting out songs in the backseat of the car. In the words of the beloved Rascal Flatts song "Life is a Highway," "Life's like a road that you travel on/when there's one day here and the next day gone." Enjoy the ride, girls, because it will be over before you have time to get out the road map!

Love Always,

Your Milestones Editors 2009

Upper School Dedication:

Dr. Art Echerd

The Milestones staff is honored to present the Upper School dedication for the 2008-2009 school year to the incredible Art Echerd, a man who has dedicated his heart and soul to teaching and supporting his beloved Harpeth Hall girls for the past 23 years. Dr. Echerd is Harpeth Hall's very own human encyclopedia, even taking the time to hunt down a student to share with her an article from his stacks of resources when he feels it will be of interest to her. When Dr. Echerd is not grading our papers or finding that extra bit of information for us, he can be found at almost every Harpeth Hall sporting event, performance, or art show, wearing his signature Harpeth Hall plaid tie. Dr. Echerd is always here for us whenever we need his guidance or support, and, for that, we could not be more thankful!

In the words of Mr. Joe Croker, "I would say about Dr. Echerd that he is simply one of the great men — The Buddha, Geoffrey Chaucer, and Java Man all rolled into one. His ethics are unimpeachable, his wit ever self-deprecatory, and his mind capacious. 'A lover of trees, some have deemed him (after John Keats) 'Nature's patient sleepless eremite' or the 'Druid of Harpeth Hall.' His tastes run toward the ascetic, but he has been known to indulge in book purchases and the occasional extra slathering of gravy. Although he is a storehouse of knowledge and wisdom, his own beliefs remain a mystery, though he leads by stainless example." We couldn't have said it any better ourselves.

Thank you for everything you have done for us, Dr. Echerd!

Middle School Dedication:

Mrs. Sally Mabry

The Milestones staff is delighted to present the Middle School dedication for the 2008-2009 school year to Mrs. Sally Mabry, who is fondly referred to by her Harpeth Hall girls as "the grandmother of the Middle School." Mrs. Mabry began working in the middle school when her two daughters were students at Harpeth Hall, and she has remained a permanent fixture of the Harpeth Hall community ever since. She has even been here to watch as her granddaughter, Mabry Jackson, has made her way through her Harpeth Hall days as well. Mrs. Mabry is always here for her girls whether it is with a band-aid, a peppermint, or simply a warm and friendly smile.

In the words of Mrs. Marie Maxwell "When my daughter was in Middle School in the 90's, Mrs. Mabry was the one the girls could go to with any problem. They loved her, and the great thing is that that is still the case in 2009. The Middle School building is new, and she is still the same friendly, on her third Middle School director, but she is still the same friendly, helpful lady who makes the Middle School a great place to be."

Thank you for each year you have spent with us, Mrs. Mabry!

Thank you to everyone who has come into my life. Thank you to my family, the amazing teachers here at Harpeth Hall, and of course, to each one of my friends and the class of 2009. I could not have made it this far without each and every single one of you.

Teachers- Thank you for being patient with me and for giving me an education that will carry me through life.

Family- I could not have done any of this without y'all. Thank you for everything.

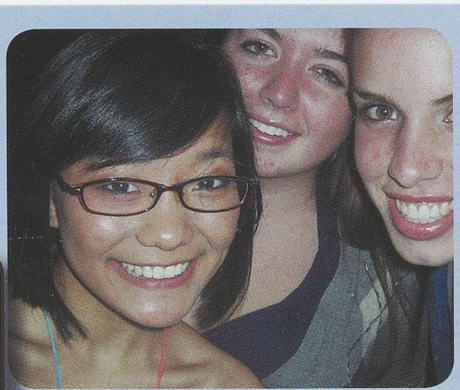
Friends- You all have no idea how much y'all mean to me. Each one of you has provided me with incredible memories that I will carry with me through my life. We have laughed constantly, and I am so thankful that y'all are in my life. I wouldn't trade y'all for anything.

The Class of 2009- Congratulations for making it this far! Have an amazing time in college and wherever you may go. I know that each of you will do amazing things.

To anyone who has appeared in my life- you have made me into the person I am today. Thank you.

All of you will forever be held in my heart.

Catherine Claire Ballew

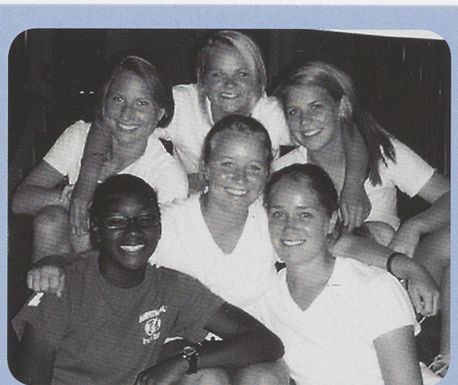


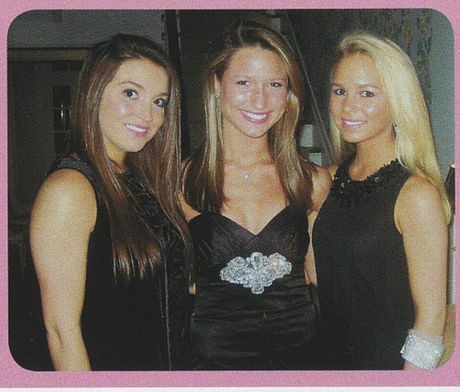
Caroline St. Clair Bartholomew

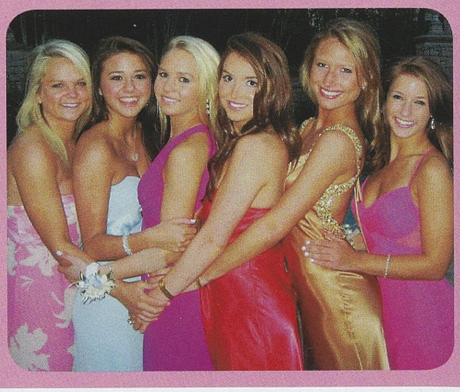
Mom and Dad-
Thank you so much for supporting me and believing in me through all of these years. You are the best parents ever and I love you so much!

William, Mk and Ellie-
Yall are the greatest older siblings and you will always be my best friends. You have taught me so much and always looked out for me throughout everything! I just love you so much!

My friends-
You have made my high school experience all that it is. I love you all so much and will never forget all of the funny times. I have so many amazing memories that I can look back on and laugh and I know that we will still be creating more as the years go on. Each of your friendships has meant so much to me... Thank you so much for putting up with me! I will miss you and I love you!







To my family, friends, and Aaron-
Every girl should be so lucky to have a treasure chest full of wonderful memories as I do. Thank you for loving me through each day. I am so blessed to have you all in my life. I will always cherish these precious memories that we have shared together. Thank you to the Harpeth Hall community for your daily diligence and helping all of us girls be the best that we can be. Mom, Dad, Mariel, and AJ, I love you all very much and will miss you tremendously next year.

"We know the love that God has for us, and we trust that love. God is love. Those who live in love live in God, and God lives in them." 1 John 4:16

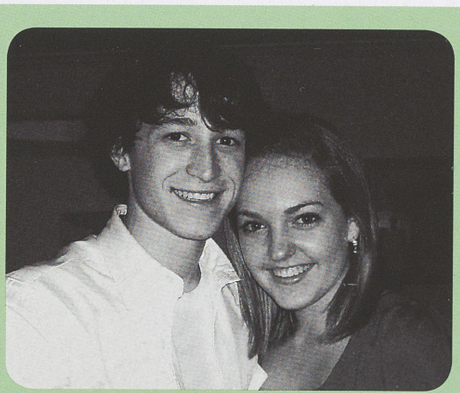
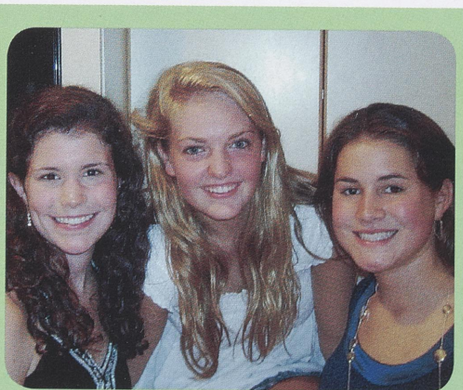
Thanks Mom and Dad for always believing in me and encouraging me to reach my full potential.

Thanks Parkes, Justine, and Jack for supporting me along the way. I have loved growing up with ya'll and our house has never seen a dull moment. I will miss you all.

Thank you to all of my friends. Ya'll are such an amazing group of girls and I could have never made it through high school without ya'll always there to make me smile. I love you all, good luck in college, and I can't wait for our reunions!

Love, Liz





The Thread- Thank you so much for always being there for me, whether it is me finding a 100 dollar bill or having a breakdown. Whenever we are together, I can count on having a good time and I don't know what I will do without the guidance and laughter of my 12 best friends next year!

Petersburg plus Noel- I am so glad we found each other! Our friendship has meant so much to me. We have had some crazy times and I doubt that I will find anyone else who understands me like y'all do.

Lucy and Grace- Since we were kids, you two have been my best friends. This Fredericksburg friendship has stayed with me throughout high school and I hope for the rest of my life. I love y'all and I am going to miss you both more than you will know!

Mom and Dad- You have been so supportive of everything I have done and I love you for it. I couldn't have survived high school without you.

Emorie- I have come to depend on you not only as a sister, but as a friend and I love you.

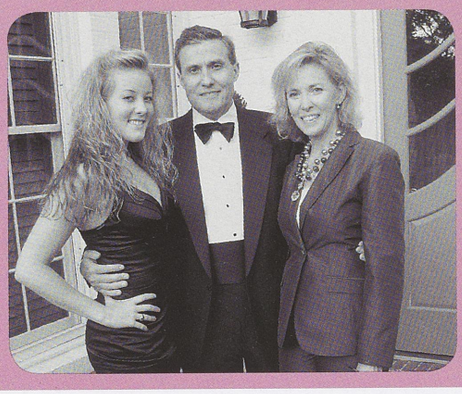
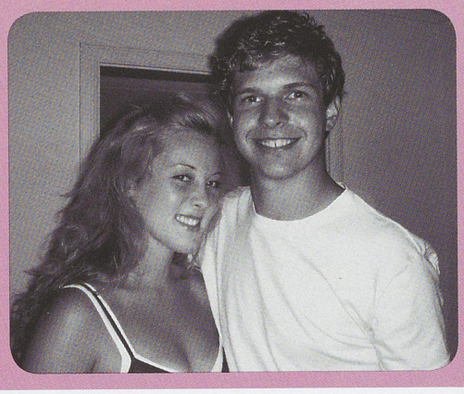
Dear friends and family,
Who am I to complain when I am surrounded by such people as you? How can I progress without reminiscing on the things we did and said, and the places we went? Ambre, my laughter and my life, thank you for loving me regardless. Mom, my best friend, you are officially my role model. Rasheed, you believed in me when I couldn't believe in myself and I will never forget that. Aunty, you held me when I cried and congratulated my every success, and have impacted me from childhood. Dad, you always show up when I need you the most and you fix everything I break. I'll never be able to replace you in my life and I never will in my heart. While there is so much more I want to say lol I am limited to 1,000 characters.

Your verbose slimjim,
Asia





Lou Ann and Gurry: You two are the most intelligent and level headed folks around. I appreciate the 18 years that you have dedicated to the cause and the hours you have spent picking up the pieces (and laundry) that I have dropped on my way. I love you infinitely & always.

The Thread: Home to some of the most striking, clever, & (usually) classy broads that I will ever meet. I thank you for allowing me to be my "natural" self from time to time & fear that one of my biggest struggles in the coming year will be to find a more tolerant & humorous group of ladiez to befriend.

Kales: You are one of the most beautiful people & someone who mirrors me with near perfection, I love you endlessly.

Lane, Mad, & Boel: My steadfast women until the end. Hilarious, stunning, & dependable, you have shown me that there is really nothing better than a solid night ride with Petersburg & time with you three-sincerely Squire Hamilton.

Class of 09: Ave atque vale.

Mom & Dad- thank you for helping me achieve my dreams & for putting up with me all along the way! Chris- you've always been my role model! I could have never come this far with lacrosse if it wasn't for you & I only hope one day I can be half the player you are! Jack- you are the greatest gift from God! Thank you for always being the person to make me laugh & put a smile on my face! Please don't ever change! Clay- 'hey bay bay' Thanks 4 the crazy adventures! Lexi 'pow in ma face'! You will always be my best friend in the whole world, I love you so much! Julianne- These last two years of high school just wouldn't be the same without you & all the crazy fun times we have shared together! You're such an amazing best friend & every single memory I have with you makes me laugh & brings a smile to my face! To Skywalkers & HH LAX- Thank you for helping me achieve my dream of becoming a DORE! Scott Ramsey: Showtime- 4 years strong- that's what's up- reach for the stars- I feel free! Thank you to all my friends, coaches, & teachers! PEACE SIGN '09!

Thank you to my family for your constant support and love.

Thank you to all of my teachers for your hard work and understanding.

Thank you to my friends
for helping me through these past six years, and for creating memories that I know will last a lifetime.

Mom, Dad, Allie, and the Lil – I love you guys. I will miss dinner time, UT football, and the constant support when I go away to the cold north next year. You have made my childhood so awesome and instilled in me a great sense of fun. To the thread – I am so lucky to have had y'all throughout high school. I cannot imagine a group of people who I would laugh harder with, yell more with or wear moonshoes with. I will miss you and our ridiculous lunchtime conversations at the spot more than I could say, but I am confident when I say that we will always each other as a safety net. I love you so much. To Nick – I could not have chosen someone better to spend my high school years with. As my climbing partner, my confidante and my closest ally, you have made my last few years. I love you. To the Class of 2009 – Thanks for a great eight years! I have grown up with you guys and I will certainly miss the camaraderie of our grade next year. I am so appreciative to have had y'all in my classes throughout the years, and you have made my time in the plaid skirt special.

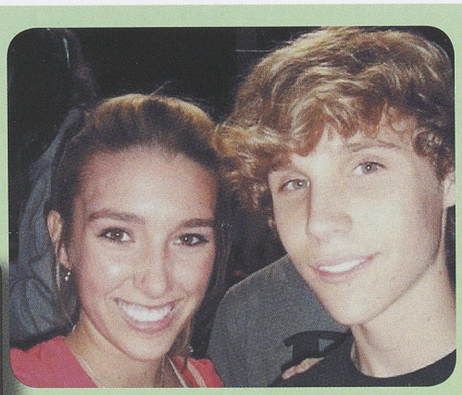
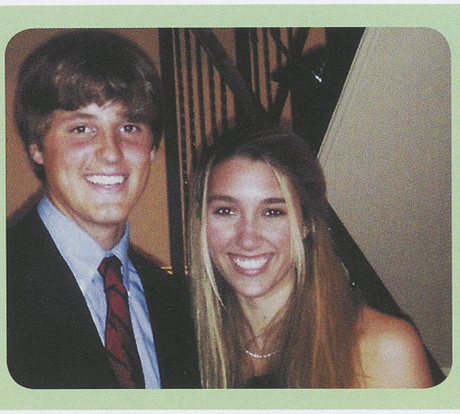
Mom, thank you for being so supportive and always listening and giving me advice on whatever was thrown at me; I don't know what I'm going to do without you next year. Dad, thank you for your sense of humor that normally only the Cox family understands. Alex, you never cease to make me laugh, take care of Scooter. I love you all so much, thank you for your continuous support and pushing me to do my best.

To my friends:
Thanks for the endless laughs, knowing how to make me feel better, and sharing so many memories. I love you and will miss you next year!

Taylor Ann Cox





Sarah Joy Crouch

Mom, Dad, and Caroline: Thank you so much for always being there and putting up with me in everything that I do. I couldn't have done it without your support. I love you!

The thread: Ya'll are the best. I don't know where I could ever find a group of friends who are so different, yet love each other so much. I'll miss you all!

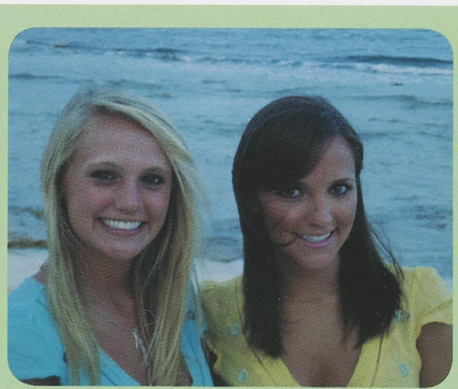
Phoebe: Thanks for inviting me over to your house in 7th grade. I couldn't have made it through high school without you!

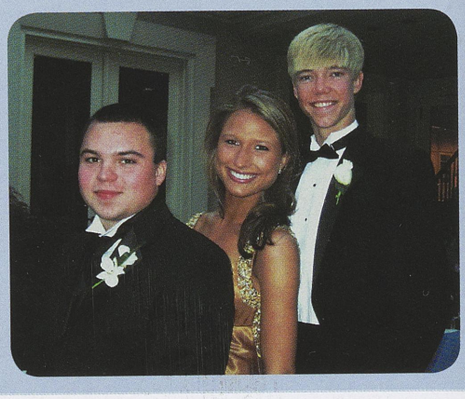
Liz: Thanks for listening when no one else does. I'll miss you!

Anna: Thanks for always being there and always caring. I honestly don't know what I would do without you. Anshna and Haars forever.

Mere: Otter Creek to Harpeth Hall graduation...thirteen years and we're still going strong! I'm sure there will be many more years of friendship to come. Thank you for everything.

Class of 2009: You rock, don't change.





Family: Thank you for always supporting my decisions and encouraging me to follow my dreams. The opportunities you gave me allowed me to discover myself and helped mold me into the person I am today. Love you forever.

Friends: I am so lucky to have such great people surrounding me. I will never take for granite the laughs and love we shared. I envy the new friends you will meet next year. They have an amazing four years ahead of them. Every one of you has so much to offer to the world. I cannot wait to see us spread our joy next year! You all are my lucky stars.

And instead of saying all of your goodbyes - let them know
"You realize that life goes fast
It's hard to make the good things last
You realize the sun doesn't go down
It's just an illusion caused by the world spinning round"

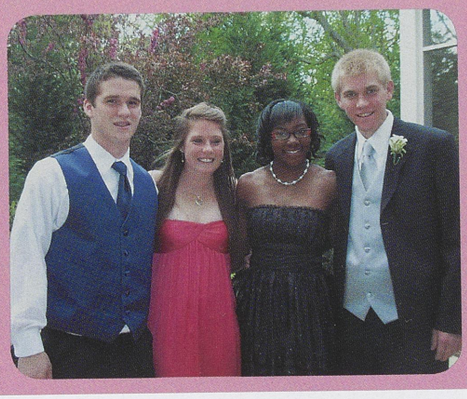
Mom and Daddy- Thank you for your love and support in everything that I do. I cannot imagine living without y'all. I appreciate everything y'all do for me and every bit of advice you have given me along the way.

Maggie and Clay- Thank you for helping shape me into the person I am today. Whether it was by hanging B-bear over the banister, writing "dork" on my forehead and telling me it said "cool," or duct taping me to a huge wooden board, it has all helped me some way or another. I love you both!

Soccer girls- Y'all mean the world to me and I am going to miss every single one of you. Thanks for making this the best season. We made it through some of the hardest times in our lives and fought for each other on that field. I couldn't have done it without y'all. "WE LOVE SOCCER!"

Friends- I could not get through high school without you. We have grown and overcome many obstacles together. All the fun times were worth the hard work. Peace Sign '09.



To my family: Thank you for all the opportunities you have given me and supporting me through my life. I will miss you!

To TNLAX girls: All of the tournaments, practices, and late nights in hotels have made my summers for the past three years extremely busy, but fun. I don't know how I am going to give up this team and the friendships I have made.

To the Posse: I will be one of the firsts to graduate with Anna Lee and Margaret and I hope the rest of you have great senior years! I will miss the president games, working together, pasta bar, reminiscing old love lives, posse picnics, and so much more. I love all of you and will miss you terribly!

To my Grade: Some of you guys I have been with since the 5th grade while others joined as late as 11thgrade. You have made my Harpeth Hall years what they are and I will never forget that. Good luck with college and I will see you at the reunions!

Mom and Dad: I can't begin to tell you how much y'all mean to me. You have always been there for me with unconditional love and have defined what a family should be.

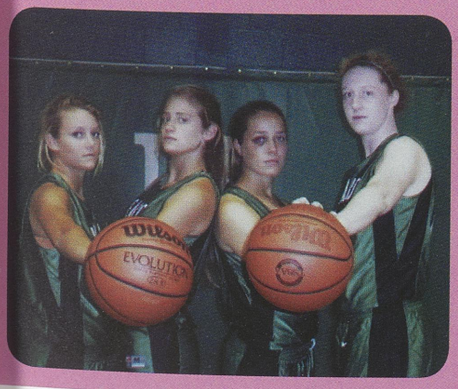
WHITDAWG: yo sista aka "henry's mom." You know you are my girl and I have NO idea what I would have done without your guidance through high school & everything you have taught me. You're the number 1 true legit balla and my role model in every way. You're the most amazing girl ever even though you use to block my shot in every 1v1 game and I wouldn't talk to you for days. I love you soo much! YOUR BROTHER IS SMARRT!

Nana thanks for all your support.

Sis/Trev: You two mean so much to me and your love and support has been outstanding all my life.

Friends: From SHADY eating to everything we do, yall have been the best friends I could possibly ask for. Ballas, my family, my best memories were with y'all, keep it real, keep ballin and supporting each other.

Carly/AC/Paige: my answered prayers, my rocks, yall kept me going everyday. I LOVE Y'ALL!



To my family- thanks for all of the support and love that you have given me throughout my time at Harpeth Hall. Mom and Dad thanks for supporting in me in everything I did. John thanks for all of the great advice and stories. Amando and Diane thanks for putting up with me for so long, and being the best siblings I could ask for.

To my friends- thanks all for letting be as crazy as possible and loving me for it anyways. I cannot imagine life without you all in it and am going to miss you all like crazy next year. Thanks for giving me a home away from home where I could be comfortable enough to truly be myself. I will always cherish our fun crazy times that we have shared together. Mark, Kesha, and Rachel-I love you guys and cannot imagine a day without our crazy antics and fun time. To the tripod, trio, and triad- our friendships have proven that good things in life really do come in three's and I hope our bonds never fade.

To the girls meeting-I love all of you girls and am so happy to have you all as a second family. I will never forget the fun we have shared together and the memories we have made.

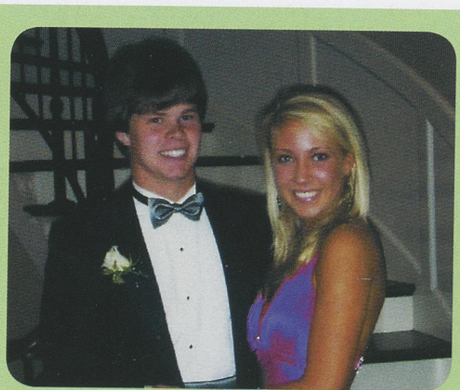
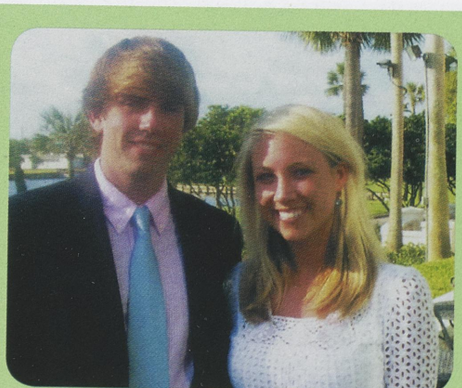
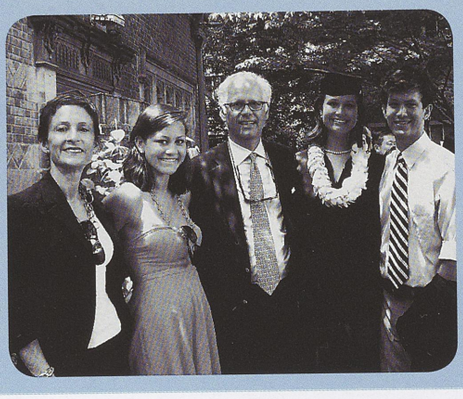
To my friends, family, and Matt:
Words cannot begin to express how much ya'll have helped me throughout the years. I cannot thank you enough for all you have given me; it is because of you that I have been able to do all that I have. Thank you for always putting up with me, through the good times and the bad. Each and every one of you has been a blessing in my life, and I love you all very much.







Words will never be able to explain how much I appreciate the love and support that I received through my 18 years. Mom - You are not only my role model, but you are my best friend. You have taught me how to lead in every way possible, and you have shown me what unconditional love truly is. Dad - Thank you so much for listening to me and always understanding. You have taught me more than I, and probably you, have ever imagined. Lauren - My big sister, thank you for being here for me everyday through thick and thin, I have loved every minute of being your baby sister. I watch your every move and you have set a wonderful example for me to follow. Read – We may bicker, but you are the most amazing brother to me in every way. You have taught me how to reach my goals, and that can never be replaced. To my friends - The years have flown by, memories have been made, and now it is time for the next chapter in our lives. Good luck and most of all have fun! Thank you to everybody who has helped me mature into the woman I am today.

I love y'all!

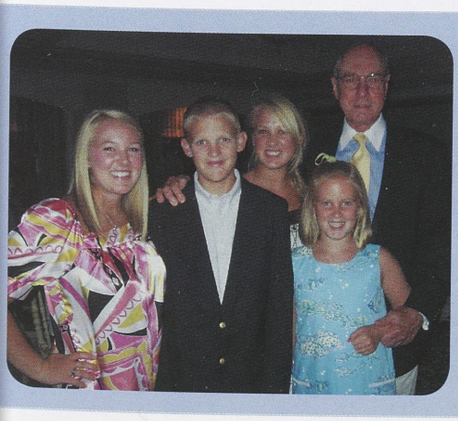
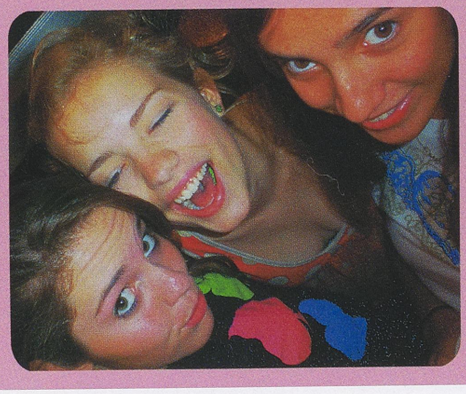
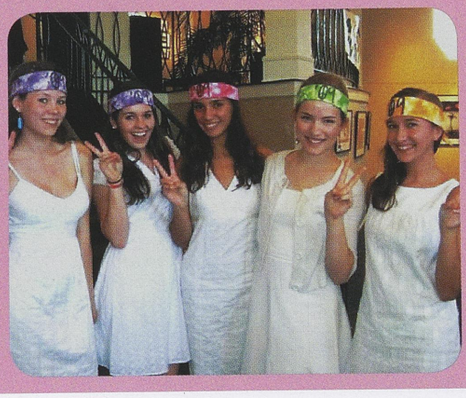
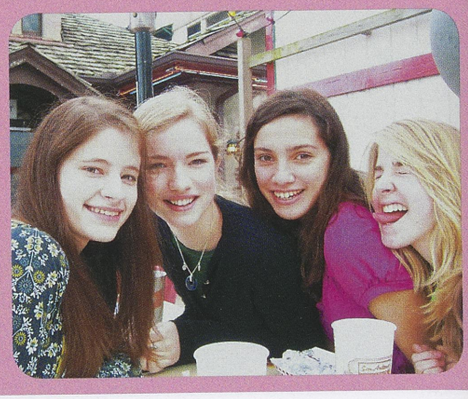
I would like to thank my family for all their support throughout the past four years of my experience in high school. It has been a wonderful four years of my life and I am going to miss Harpeth Hall. Mom, thanks for always being a wonderful mother and friend to me, you have taught me so much about myself and you are the best mom ever. Dad, thank you so much for always supporting me in all of my aspirations. Lawson thanks for being a really cool and wild younger brother, your stories and jokes have always put a smile on my face. Becca, you have been such a role model for me and even though you are my younger sister I look up to you so much. Thanks for always being a wonderful sister. Emmie, you are such an awesome little sister and most importantly a wonderful friend. To my friends, ya'll are so awesome and the past four years would not have been as memorable without you-good luck to everyone next year.

Love,
Margaret









I cannot even begin to count all the people who have helped me to progress gracefully through my high school years. The list would undoubtedly go on for pages. But there are a few people who have been with me through every tear and every laugh.

To Mom and Dad- thank you so much for dealing with my extreme mood swings during the tech weeks of shows, and thank you for attending every play I have ever been in and clapping louder than all the rest. Thank you for letting me make my own choices and find my own path.

To all my friends- "How do I love thee? Let me count the ways..." You all have truly seen it all and yet still stayed by my side. You tolerated my obsessively academic nature and my tendency to text/call you at 7 am on Saturday mornings...because who isn't awake at that hour? You were aware of all my odd-ball quirks and still let me stand next to you in public. Thanks for that.

To everyone ever involved in HH or MBA theatre- thank you for your undying commitment. I have shared some of my most intimate moments with all of you, and you, in return, have helped to foster my love of theatre.

Thank you. I truly love you all.

Willa Cordelia Fitzgerald

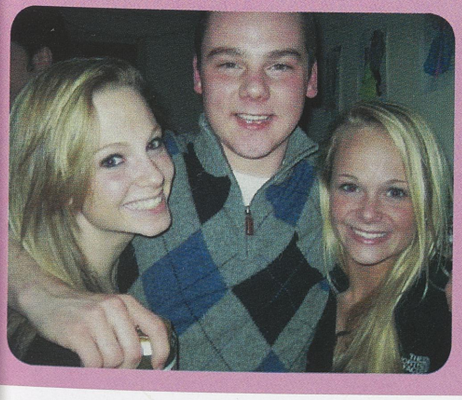
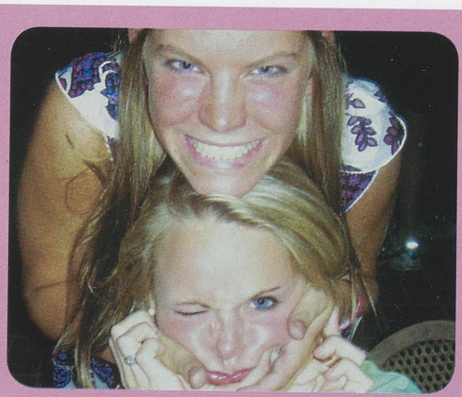
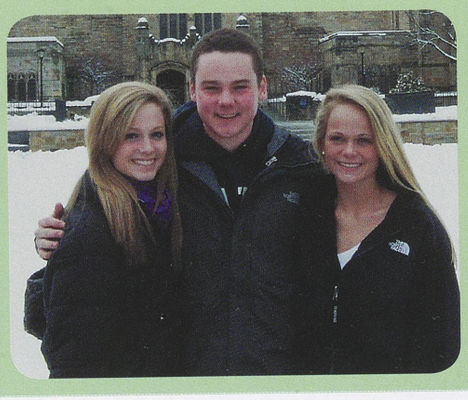
To my family: Mom and Dad, thank you for all that you have given me and for supporting me in these past four years and for encouraging me to be the best that I can be. Jamie, thank you for watching out for me and for cheering me up when no one else could. Kath, thank you for being a faithful and loving sister and companion and for your ever-present cheerfulness and kindness.

To my teachers and mentors: Thank you for the wisdom you have instilled in me.

To my friends: Thank you for making these past four years the best of my life. I will never forget the memories we have shared. You will always have a place in my heart. I love each one of you and I don't know what I will do without you next year. I wish the best for all of you.







To Mom and Dad-
You've been such great supporters of everything I do. I know that you'll be with me every step of the way in the next chapter of my life. Thank you for the endless opportunities and unfailing love.
To Liz and Jamie-
I couldn't have asked for a better brother and sister! I love you both so much, and you've been such great sources of love, comfort, and support.
To my friends-
How do I say all this? I love each of you so much! Thank you for the crazy nights, long talks, and inside jokes. I'll never forget all the memories we've made and the fun we've had in our years together! I know our friendships will stand the test of distance. This is not a goodbye!
To Matt-
Thank you for being my best friend and so much more. I couldn't have predicted it would last this long or be this great, but here we are. I love you.
Life without y'all next year will be so different, but I know you will always be just a phone call away. Thank you for everything! I love you all!

Wow. I really cannot believe we have reached this point. It has been 6 years since I started Harpeth Hall. 6 years full of singing Disney songs, laughing till we cried, boy dramas, plays and musicals, dances, parties, and most importantly each other. I really cannot imagine a high school experience more perfect than these last four years. My girlies- you have always been there for me, through the thick and the thin. I love each and every one of you more than words can express. My Advanced Theatre Class- I miss our class so much. I love you all and wish you luck in everything you do! My family -Its overwhelming to think I will no longer live with you after this year. Thank you for the sacrifices you made to give me this amazing opportunity. I love you all and will miss you! To quote one of my favorite shows I have ever done: "Here's to high school, how it flies. To the bonds and to the ties. To the love that never dies. Here's to all the years ahead."

Mom and Dad – Thank you for your never-ending love and support for everything I do. You have always been there to help and encourage me. I appreciate everything you do – from making me laugh, to staying up late, to helping me study, to being at my many basketball games. I love you so much! Thank you.

To the Hudsons – Thank you for not treating me like a cousin, but more like another sibling in the family. You don't know how much it means to me. Thank you for always letting me arrive at your house uninvited and pretty much live there during summers.

AuntDeb–Thanksforlettingmebeyourunofficial5thchild!

To all my friends – Thank you for all the laughs and for always being able to cheer me up when I needed it. These past four years have been amazing, and I don't think I could've gotten through them without you! I don't know what I'm going to do without all of you next year, but I will never forget all the laughs and great times we had together. Thanks so much!

To my family-
Thank you for all the support you have given me over the years. I don't know what I would do without you! Thank you for helping me become the person that I am today. I love you all very much.

To my girls-
Thank you for helping me laugh when I thought it was impossible to smile. Even though we will be separated next year, know that each and every one of you remains close to my heart. Thank you for all the memories and special times that we have had. I am so lucky to know each of you and I love you all so much!

You all have given me so many opportunities, but have never failed to remind me of the responsibility that comes with being so fortunate. You have instilled in me a love and respect of other cultures that has become my passion and have raised me to be someone that I can be proud of. Thank you for everything, I love you!

"The Thread": For the past four years, y'all have been my confidantes, my partners in crime, and my best friends. You all have been a constant source of smiles and laugher in my life and I am so lucky to have had you. Though I know everything is going to change next year, I have no doubt that we will all remain friends, and I am a better person for having known all of you. Thank you Mom and Dad for your love and support throughout my four years at Harpeth Hall and the past eighteen years.

Ashley- Thanks for being such an incredible big brother and friend and for always looking out for me.

Thank you, Be,n for being such an amazing boyfriend, for always being there for me, and always knowing how to make me laugh.

To all of my friends- Thank you for the laughs and the wonderful memories. I know my time at Harpeth Hall wouldn't have been the same without all of you.

I love you all and will miss each one of you next year.

To my teachers – Thank you for always pushing me further than I thought I could ever push myself.
Mom and Dad – Thank you for always supporting me. You have never once stopped believing in me, and I can't tell you how much it has meant. Mom, our relationship is more special to me than you know.
Trent and William – Thank you for always reminding me not to take myself too seriously.
To My Girls – We've finally made it! You guys are the best friends I could have ever hoped for. Each one of you has meant so much to me throughout the years that we've been together. Our memories are priceless!
Coleman – My WallE. The time that we've had in high school has meant so much to me and I am going to miss you more than ever next year. No matter what happens, you will always have a place in my heart. I love you!
To Everybody - Thank you. You have all helped me to grow and learn, and I cannot believe how blessed I have been to have so many wonderful people in my life. I love you all!

To my mother: we have been through it ALL honestly.. the ups as well as the downs. Through it all you have truly been my best friend and superwoman. I love you with all my heart. Thanks for all your support in everything I do and tolerating me over the last seventeen years. I promise to make you proud!

Now to my best friends Sydney and Chari we made it ladies! You all have heard, seen, and experienced it ALL with me I couldn't have asked for two better best friends than you two.

To my loving grandparents thanks for listening to me cry and ramble when no one else would—running all over town for me when I know I didn't deserve it. I love you both so much.

Now to my FAVORITE girls [Rachel, Kesh, & Dush] we have truly been friends since forever it seems. I have definitely made life long friends all the drama, fights, etc was all worth it. It bought us so much closer than I could have ever imagined. I wouldn't have made it through HH without you three. Definitely not trio ladies...we are SO much more. I love you three so much and you better stay in touch!

You've never stopped supporting me on my decisions and you have helped me through every bump in the road. Logan and Wesley, thank you for leading a strong path for me to follow. You taught me the ropes of high school before I even got there, and I can't image going through these past nineteen years without your lead.

Thank you to my doggies that brighten my day every time I see them. And finally, thank you to every one of my friends. I don't think any of you will ever know how much I appreciate everything y'all do for me. I will miss all our emails and all our group outings. Thanks for putting up with me, whether it be my weird antics or my grumpy moods. Without y'all, there is no way that I would have made it through high school. These past four years have been some of the best in my life. I owe this to some special people in my life. To God: Thank you for providing me with the ideal surroundings of people and places in my life. To my parents: You have been my support system and have always told me to seize any opportunity that I have been given. I will never be able to pay you back for all of what you have done for me. Thank you for always having my back. To my friends: Thank you for all of the crazy times we have shared and for all of the support y'all have given me plus all of the many laughs. To Richard: Thank you for being there for me these past three years whether its encouragement, laughter, or just having fun. My high school experience would not be complete without all of you in my life. I do not know what I will do without seeing all of you every day for the next few years. I look forward to the next chapter in my life with all of you by my side. I love each and every one of you.

Mom, Dad, and James: I don't want to be cliché, but I can't thank you enough for all that you have done for me. As my last year in high school comes to a close, I am doing two things: reflecting on my past and planning my future. Without you in my past, I would have no future. Without your guidance, I would not be who I am today. You all are my inspiration. James, I am so proud of you for more reasons that I can express. Good luck in high school, buddy. I love you all so much.

My girls: You are my sisters. We can't live with each other, and we can't live without each other. Despite our rough patches in the years we've been together, we have always been supportive of one another. This is how I know I amlucky to find you guys. You mean so much to me and next year will be sad without you, but I am fully confident that you all will achieve your goals with flying colors. Love you guys. Good luck!
Love and thanks to all who have helped bring me closer to my dreams.

Mom and Dad, thanks for all you've done and continue to do. You believed in me when no one else would and you both mean the world to me. You've taught me everything I know about life and inspired me to strive for the impossible and for that I'm forever grateful. I love you always and forever.

To the girls who mean the most(you know who you are) thanks for always keeping me smiling and laughing even when I didn't want to and for sticking with me through thick and thin. Thanks for being my rocks this year and sticking by my side. There aren't enough words to describe how much you mean to me. You made me want to be better. I will never forget any of you.

Love,
I.K.

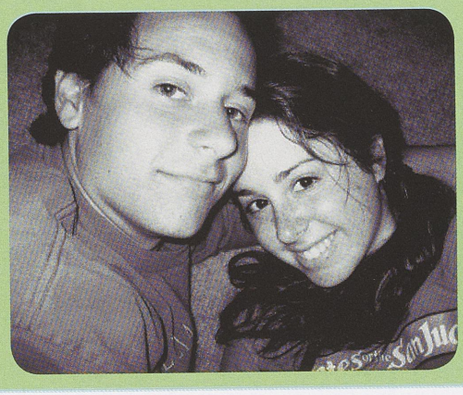
My all-knowing mommy, thank you for the continuous support & encouragement I have constantly received for 18 years. You mean the world to me. I would be one lost, little girl without your thoughtful advice.

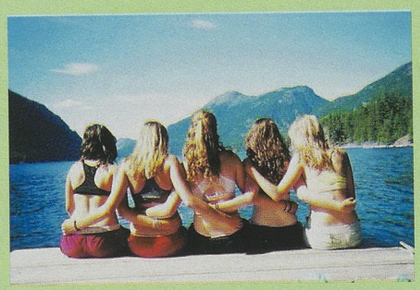
Daddis, thank you for teaching me that there are always two sides to every argument & always pushing me to do my best. I appreciate everything you've done for me; without you I'd be nowhere.

Thank you, my amazing, loyal brother, for always staying true to your personal beliefs & loving me no matter what secret I may have let slip! I love you so much. Don't let anyone ever convince you that your carefree, happy-go-lucky personality is a bad thing. It's one of the many factors that contribute to your magnetic charm.

And to my precious friends, I wouldn't have made it through these past 6 years at Harpeth Hall without yall. You are the one & only factor that has made my high school experience so memorable. I am so lucky to have had all of you in my life.

EEJ, YOU'RE MY FAVE & I'LL MISS YOU!





Thank you Mom and Dad for all you have done for me. Thank you for pushing me to do things I never thought I could do and for always being there for me. You both mean the world to me.

Hunter, I just want you to know I look up to you more than anyone in the world.

Dana and Carell, ya'll have been the most amazing friends and I'll never forget the good times we've had. I love you all so much.

Josh, you taught me so much in the short amount of time I knew you. Thank you for watching over me. I hope I see you again one day. I miss you and I love you. Rest in peace.

"My lovely friends
How could I change toward you who are so beautiful?"
Sappho, translated by Mary Barnard

Your company was always charming, your humor always creative, and you have shaped my development more than any other factor in my life. I remember the summer before senior year—our desperate rush to see our boys as often as possible before we lost them to New York—as the richest few months of my life so. I hope that the friendship I have given to you merits the precious intimacy you all have shared with me. When I imagine life after graduation, I can't help but hope that it will be our daughters who eat lunch together every day beside the tennis courts.

Thank you, Alex, for being always generous toward and protective of me.

Thank you, Dad, for instilling in me your own unrelenting pride and integrity, which have been the foundation for all my academic success.

Thank you, Mom, for the emotional intelligence, and for teaching me that nothing is stronger than a mother's love for her child.

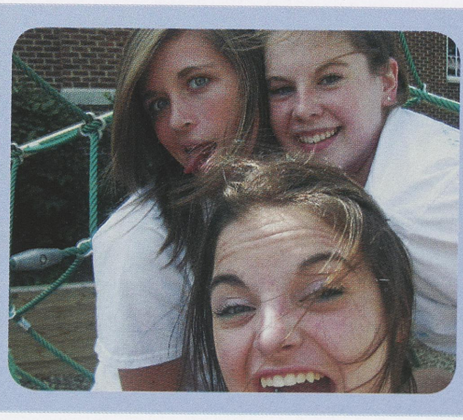
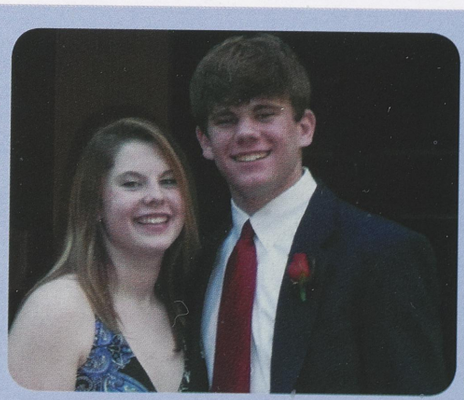
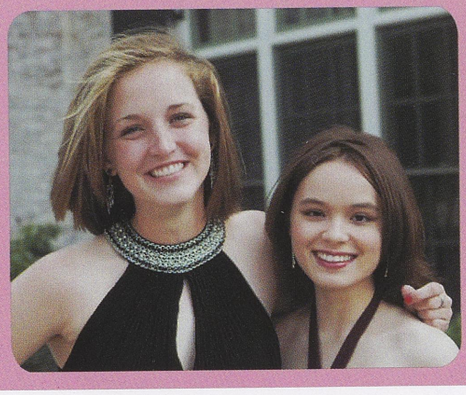
Thank you to my family for always being there and supporting me. You are the best family a girl could ever have!

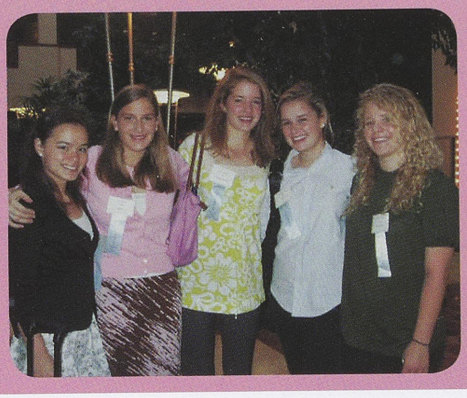
To my friends, I LOVE YOU ALL SO MUCH! You all have no idea what I would have done without you all these years. Thanks for always being there for me when I was having a bad day or just to talk to me when I needed someone to talk to. You all are the best friends ever and I don't know what I am going to do without you all next year.

To my dance girls, have a WONDERFUL year this year and dance your hearts out because before you know it, you will be off to college. Enjoy every minute of high school because the times flies by.









Thanks to all of you for six years of bed heads, prickly legs, and smiles. Thanks for laughing with me (and at me), and your willingness to let me laugh with and at you. Thanks to my family, friends, and anyone else who has ever waved, smiled, offered a hello, or asked me a question.

For listening when I talk, talking when I listen, and sharing my silence when we've all had enough of words, thanks.

To the Class of 2009 - You all have given me some of the greatest memories that I will cherish forever. We have had many laughs that I will always remember and I will always consider you all my family!

To My Friends - With out a doubt I would not be the person I am without you all in my life. You all have put up with me for the past eight years and all I can say is thank you. You guys rock and will always have a place in my heart.

To My Family - Ana and Aidan, words cannot even begin to define the crazy times we have been through together and I could not have asked for better friends or sisters than the two of you. Mom and Dad, I know it is hard to believe but I did it and we all know that I wouldn't be half the person I am today without your help and support. You guys are my number one fans and I am blessed and forever thankful for the two of you.

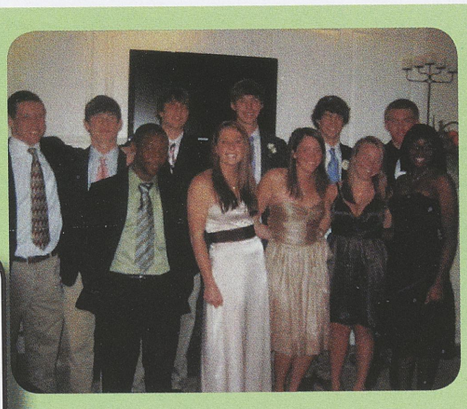
After reflecting back on all my memories that I have had, these words describe and define my life over the past eight years here at Harpeth Hall:

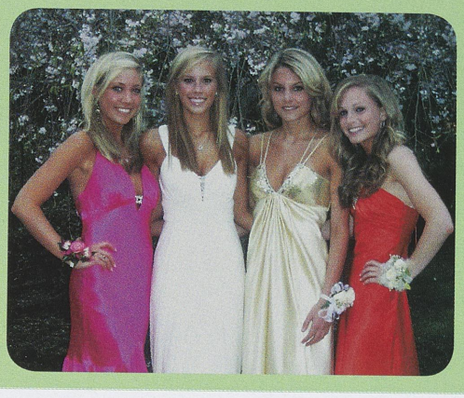
F is for friends who do stuff together

U is for you and me

N is for anything and anytime at all down here with my best buddies

Sabin Alexia Nettles





Brenna Griffith Newport

I would like to say thank you to my parents for always being there for me even when I make mistakes. You never stopped supporting me.

To Mom: thanks for all of your advice, it helped me become a more understanding person.

To Dad: I will always be daddy's little girl.

To my brother: Evan, I love you and will miss you! Be good for mom and dad!

To my friends: it is going to be hard leaving you guys but I know we will keep in touch and see each other on breaks. I love you!

To Baker: I love you and thank you for always sticking with me even when it seems impossible to. You have truly made me a better person. I can't wait to see what the future holds.

Neil, Nance, Ang & Elta: Thanks for providing me with funny stories to tell my friends. You want the best for me, and I appreciate that (sometimes).

Tones: I hope I am lucky enough to be as good of a mother as you are. These years have been hard but have brought us close. I love you so much.

Lunch Table/E-mail List/GuhFrends: No one knows me like you do. Thanks for all the late nights, kitchen raids, loyalty and love. School has been a joy because of your beautiful, hilarious and caring selves; I love you all.

Kara, Lauren, Em & Lebs: Thanks for growing up with me the past 4 years...I always forget I didn't go to Harding. If I ever decide to settle down, I'll call y'all first.

Fearsome Foursome/How Bizarre?! Lace, Bane, & MadWise: you see me for what I am and love me regardless, in the pool and out. I treasure your advice, support, and ridicule unfailingly.

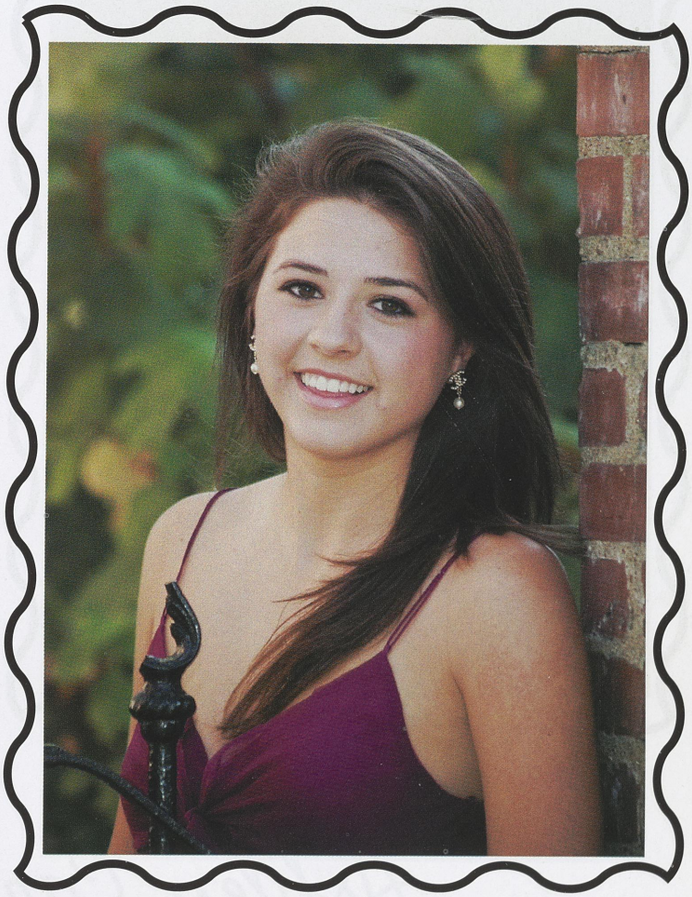
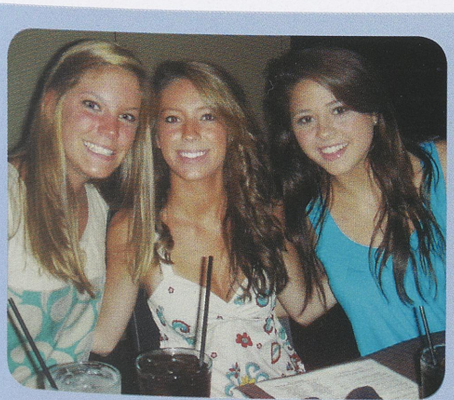
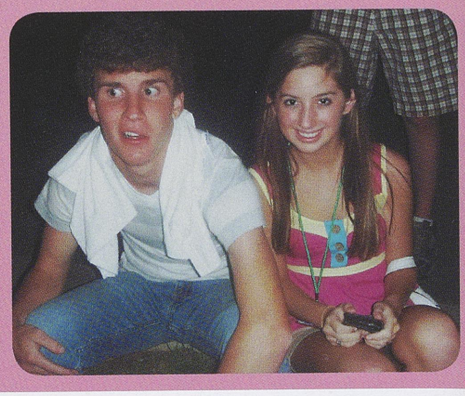
Momma Suze- Thank you so much for everything you have done for me even though I do not always express my gratitude. I love you more than you can imagine!
Christine- Thank you for putting up with my antics, and no matter how much we fight, I will always cherish our memories. I'd like to think our fights made us stronger (physically and mentally.)
Grandma & Grandpa- I love you so much and will miss your hugs next year. Thank you for taking care of me and always making me feel loved.
Friends- Oh, no... You are the best friends that I could have possibly dreamed of having during these tumultuous years. I have found myself saying several times that I have the best friends in the world. I hope we will always remain close even when we are older (I promise I will pick you out pretty bridesmaid dresses!) I can just imagine us when we are 70 rolling around with the windows down and rap blaring in our dentures and prescription glasses. I cannot wait to read this and laugh.







Thank you to everyone who has always supported and loved me. Dad, thanks for all the nights that you stayed up late helping me with homework. Also, you do not know how much it means to me to always know that you support my decisions no matter what. Thank you, Mom for dealing with all of my panic attacks over guys, dances, and grades. I could not have survived without knowing that you are always there for me. Wes, I greatly appreciate all of the amazing advice you have given me over the years and how you have always made me see the best in situations. To my friends, thank you for all the amazing experiences I've had with you from the late, crazy nights driving around Nashville. I will never forget all that we have gone through, the people we have met, situations we have gotten out of, and all the times we have spent together. I know you all will always be there for me no matter what happens and can always make me laugh. I love all of you; thank you for everything.

To Mom, Daddy, and Kate:
Thank you for your love and support. I could not ask for more than the opportunities you have given me and the patience you have had with me in the process of trying to grow up.

To my friends:
There are few words I can say to express how much I'm going to miss y'all...I'm going to miss the emails, the pictures, and the weekends. I can't wait to see what happens to everyone down the road. We have made too many memories to count! Don't forget any of them; I know I won't!

To Garner:
My mirror, my sword, my shield, my rock, my best friend. Thank you for putting up with me. Can't wait to see what's next in "the plan"!
I love you all!

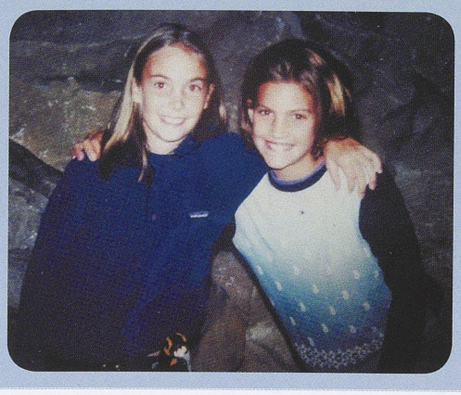
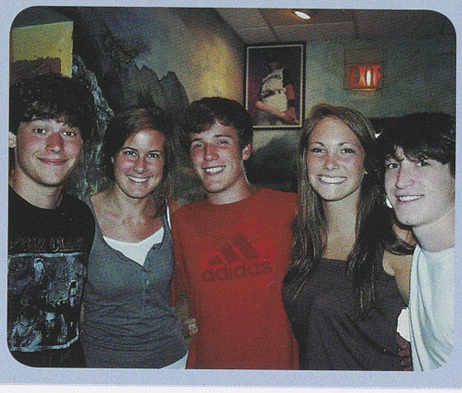
Thank you Mama! It's been me & you from the very beginning. You have supported me through everything and I don't know where I would be if it weren't for you by my side. We have been through a tremendous amount, & on top of all the drama from work & school we have come out on TOP! You are the epitome of a strong black woman; a woman who has persevered & has accomplished so much. Thank you for being the woman that you are & I am forever grateful that you are my mom. I don't know what I am going to do without you in college!!! (I guess blow up your phone on a daily basis haha) .. but I love you! Trust & believe that OUR day will come.

To my best friends Markisha and Aline – you two are my right rib! I don't know where I would be without you two. I can depend on yall for anything. We have been through all sorts of drama – firetruck & Beyonce – but through it out all we have managed to always come out on top. =) I love yall like no other. I will miss you two when we go our separate ways, but I know we will always remain the best of friends. I love yall.

I love you too, Kiya, CJ, and Ian.

LaKesha Marie Smith





Anna Elizabeth Spoden

My family, the support provided by you in my life has been immeasurable. I appreciate and love each and everyone one of you immensely.

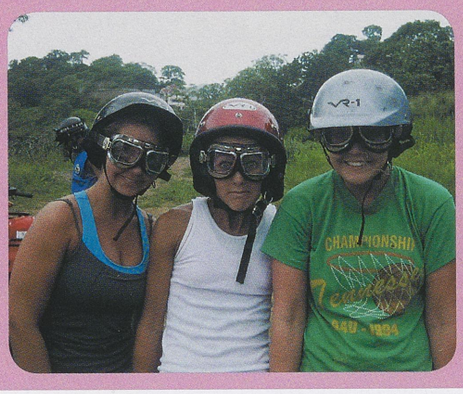
Mac, thank you for always being there. You're my best friend and the best boyfriend I could ask for.

Madison, after everything we've been through, together and apart, I can't even explain how much you matter to me.

The thread, I honestly don't know where I would be if it wasn't for you guys. Y'all are my staple and the best people I'll ever meet. We rule the world. I love every single one of you.

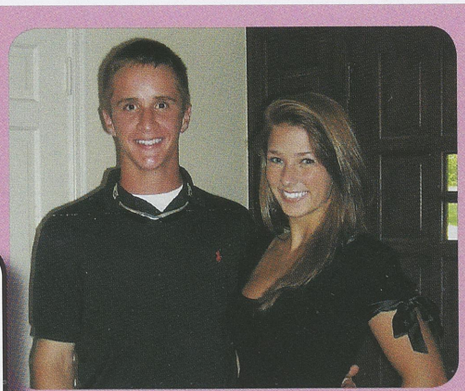
The boys, y'all always keep me laughing. Thanks for never ceasing to entertain me.

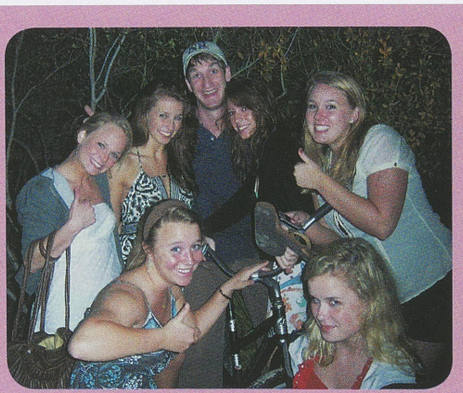
And everyone, I wish you the best. Thanks for everything. I love you all.

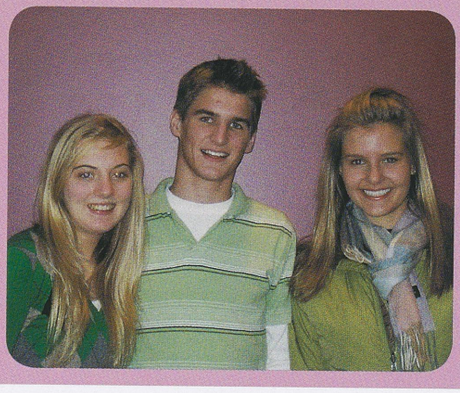


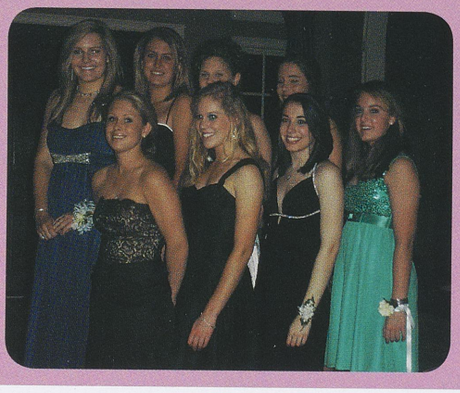
To friends & family-
I could never have made it out of high school in one piece without your help.
Mom and dad, I know I have been difficult & there have been rough times, but thank you for never giving up.
For my sisters, thanks for teaching me it's ok to be myself, no matter how weird I can be; and for knocking me down a few pegs when I needed it. I now realize you've always had my best interest at heart.
To my friends, it's been a long road. Many hardships, but that comes with growing up. I've lost some and gained some but for the ones who are still putting up with me today, you all are going to be friends for life. I can't thank you enough for giving me a shoulder to lean on, especially when something else was going on. I hope I have made an impact on you as much as you've had on me. Don't ever forget that I will always be here.
And finally, Monk-
I will probably never see you again but know you are always going to be in my heart, wherever you are... With kneepads and a xylophone.

Sara Sudekum Stengel



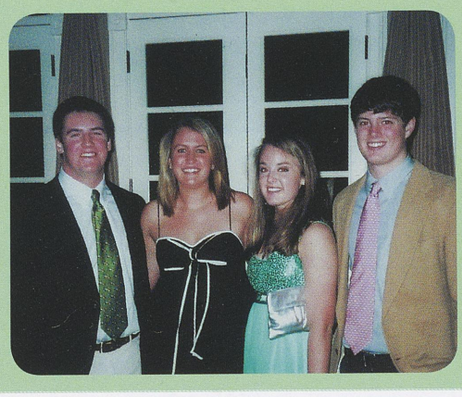


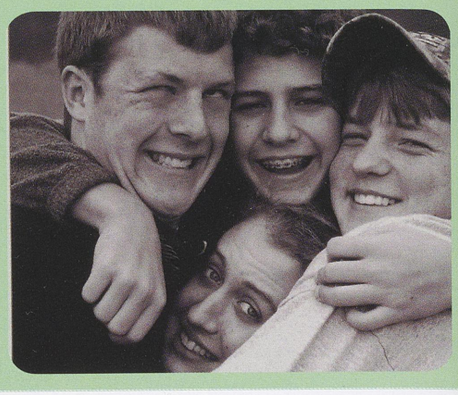




Julia Doris Sturgeon

Mom and Dad-
When I thanked you in first grade, I thanked you "because you feed me and take care of me all the time". Today, I want to thank you for so much more. You have always supported me through any adventure I want to embark on, even if it's risky. You are my safety net and my emotional support. Even though I will be off at college next year, I will still be your little girl. I love you both so much.
Leslie and Dave-
I can always rely on you for a good laugh or advice on life. I couldn't ask for a closer relationship with my siblings. You are the joy that is brought to me during holidays or when you call home.
To my friends-
The times we have had together are unforgettable. As we all part ways for college next year, I can always count on coming home and picking up where we left off.
Little T-
We have been miles away for almost 9 years now but I feel like our friendship has been stronger than ever. You are my best friend and sister. The memories we have shared are infinite and I hope they will continue.





Thank you to my Mom and Dad for always being there for me and supporting me every step of the way. You have both been such a constant encouragement and I love you both so much. Thank you for all that you have sacrificed.

Thank you to Clay and Sam for always being yourselves. I don't know what I would without you both to make me laugh, make me mad, make me annoyed, and everything in between.

Thank you to my friends who have always been a source of laughter, comfort, and honesty throughout my years of high school. I don't know how I would have made it through high school without you.

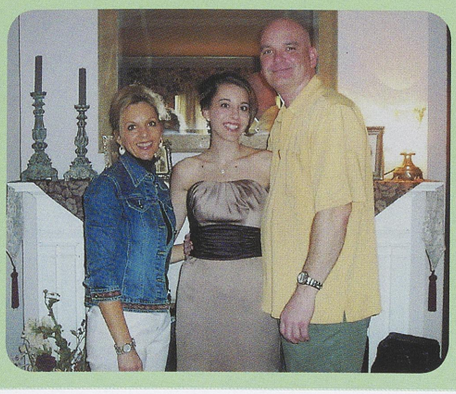
Thank you to my camp girls, who are truly the best.

Thank you to my teachers, who have always been positive role models and taught me how to think critically, live honorably, and lead confidently.

And last but certainly not least, I want to thank God, whose amazing grace is a constant reminder of something that is truly wonderful.

Love, Shaye

Shaye Elizabeth Sullivan



Alexis Noel Temple

Mom and Dad- Thank you so much for just simply being there for me. These last thirteen years have been crazy. It definitely has not been boring to say in the least with changing schools, sports, late nighters, illnesses, oh the list could just keep going. During those times though, you offered support in whatever decision I made, you brought me food and snacks when I was studying, and Mom made me drink all those emergencies and other immune builder drinks to keep me going. You guys have been the ones that I have done everything for. You were always pleased with me. As the old saying goes, "Did you do your best? Okay good. That's all you can do." That right there made everything okay.

Grayson and Claire- Thanks for the car rides, the singing, Claire's cheering, your advice; thanks for everything. You two are the best sisters and without you things would just not be the same. I am going to miss both of you so much next year! I love you!

To the thread (my future bridesmaids/Scooter and the moonshoes), thank you for always being there for me. I am so lucky to have found people as incredible as you all to call my friends, and I will feel incomplete without you by my side in the future. I will always smile when I think about you. My friends: I will never forget our bond. Thank you for being the most beautiful, incredible, and entertaining girls I will ever meet. Thank you for crying with me, swapping poems with me, and helping me learn to value a more meaningful connection. Thank you for long talks and for understanding without explanation.

Petersburg: I will never forget that summer night. Thank you for loving me and for being my #1 defenders.

K-Mo fans: We'll meet for another late night in a Marriot someday!

My siblings: I love you so much and you will always be my best friends. Allison- I call you when I feel as if I can talk to no one else. Thanks for being there, no questions asked. Tom- thank you for making me tough, articulate, and able to laugh at myself. Kate- I'm so grateful for our friendship. I know I can count on you to bring me down a notch.

Mom: You are the strongest and most incredible person in my life. I feel the same as I did in first grade - you are the best mom in the world. I love you.

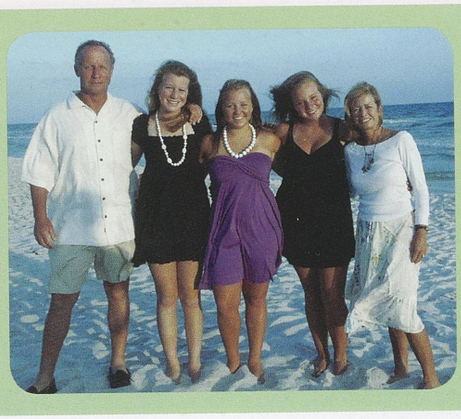
To Mom, Dad, and Jeffrey:
You are my everything, my rock and my safety net. You've seen me at my worst and brought me back to my best. You've given me my strength, my confidence, and, most of all, a childhood full of smiles. I honestly don't know where I would be without the three of you. Thank you, and I love you more than anything!

To my girls:
You're the Taylor Swift song blasting in the car, the old worn-in T-shirt that I wipe my tears on, the hysterical laugh that makes my stomach ache, and the ones that I go to when I've had more than I can take. You're my over-the-phone therapists, my partners in crime, my best friends, and the loves of my life. Thank you for everything!



To my family:
You guys are my rock and my best friends. All of you know you mean everything in the world to me. Mom, thank you so much for all the advice. I would not be where I am today without your help. Thank you for challenging my faith. I hope I am just like you when I grow up. Dad, thanks for the laughs that always brighten up my day. You challenge me to be a better person and give me support when I need it most. Sarah, what would I do without you? You are my second half, my best friend, my everything. Thanks for always knowing what to say. Katie, oh Katie. I know you've always got my back in everything I do. You are so driven and determined. Thanks for being strong when I couldn't be. You are my shoulder to lean on. William, thanks for all the memories you've given me. Thanks for helping me with my faith and never failing to be by my side.
To my friends:
You guys are unbelievable. Thanks for always making me laugh. I thank God for putting each and every one of you in my life.

First Cars

MS. GOODMAN

"My first car was a bright yellow and black Ford Maverick. I loved that car but gave it up when I kept having to get out at red lights, put a screwdriver into the butterfly valve on the carburetor, and jump back in and start it, in order to go."

MS. MAXWELL

"My first car was a Volkswagon Karmen Ghia, a cute little black sports car. The heater smelled like maple syrup and the passenger seat slid forward with each sudden stop. I loved it!"

MS. VEST

"My first car was a bright yellow 1972 Volkswagon Squareback/hatchback that was so old by the time I got it, the floor boards had rusted in the backseat. If you dropped your pencil or anything on the way to school, it hit the road!"

MR. TUZENU

"My first car was not a car, it was a motorcycle: a 1973 Honda CB175; his name was Bobo. This was in 1980. I had just met my future wife in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, though I didn't know it at the time. I mean, of course I knew it was 1980 and that I had just bought a motorcycle. I just didn't know that the friendly nurse that I was seeing with increasing frequency would one day be my lovely spouse. Oh. I was skinny then. [No. Really. I have pictures.] We wouldn't get married for another two years. She had a car, so yes, I had to get married to get my first car."

SLOW GOLFERS AT PLAY

US AND MS GOLF

The Upper School and Middle School golf team had a great season! Every girl practiced a ton, and their hard work paid off in the end. Marees Choppin was the middle school coach, and coached her team to a victory in the HVAC middle school championship. Emily Apple placed third overall in the championship. The High School golfers, coached by Moe Hill, had a strong season as well, finishing with a record of 7-5. All six members had a ton of fun and played their hardest. Way to go golf!

HH VOLLEYBALL

Volleyball opened its season with a hard fought victory over John Paul II. Varsity fell behind early, but regained the composure for the win while JV maintained their lead. JV came away with an impressive win over BA led by their captain Caroline Allen. Varsity and JV both came away with wins over St. Cecilia and BGA. The varsity ended the season strong, by reaching sub-state! This Harpeth Hall team may have been young, but they were powerful. They are led by the spirit of the seniors: Sarah Andrews and Callie Hughes.

MS VOLLEYBALL

There were three middle school volleyball teams this year. Each one played wonderfully and with the most spirit Harpeth Hall has ever seen (just look at their socks!). Each team played hard in many close matches, and the A-Team won nearly every one. Varsity had a number two seed in the HVAC tournament and placed a solid second overall after competing against CPA, Ensworth, and BGA. Their overall record was 9 and 2. These girls used good teamwork, sportsmanship, and skill to rock the court.

US CROSS COUNTRY

The cross country team had a great season this year with a mighty, senior-dominated team. Beginning before school even started in July, the girls pushed through the heat to get ready for a long and strenuous fall. Their hard work paid off as they ended the season with 1st place finishes in both the Conference and Metro Championships, followed by a 3rd place finish in the TSSAA State Championship. Congratulations to senior, Bradley Moody, for being named to the All-Metro team!

MS CROSS COUNTRY

This year, Coaches Martelle, Romary, Bier, and Brown led the Middle School Cross Country girls to a great season. The Middle school team finished runner up in the HVAC final! Allie Polk, 8th Grade, finished first in the championship with a time of 9:11, followed by Deery Brooks, 7th Grade, in a close second. BA had a lot of powerful runners come in after Polk, stealing the win away. However, the girls were highly spirited and happy about their performance, and loved how many fans came to support! This was a perfect end to a great season that every girl enjoyed.

US SOCCER

The Harpeth Hall Varsity Soccer Team had a great year! The head coach Tiffany Watson returned for her second year. There were also two new assistant coaches, Abigail Markham and Heather Norton. The team won five out of their twelve games that included Hillsboro and St. Cecilia Academy. The team won their last game at Harpeth Hall against LaVergne High School, which was also Senior Night. This game was awesome because all of the seniors played great and were honored for their hard work and good leadership.

Top: Goaly Sabin Nettles dives for the ball in order to ensure an HH win.

BALLIN' BASKETBALL

US BBALL

The Upper School Basketball Team had a great season this year. Seniors Emily Carpenter, Julianne Downs, Lucy Follansbee, and Samantha Lewis led all of the girls to a very successful season. Coach Karen Schwartz was determined to bring the team together from the start. The Honey Bears took a trip to Phoenix, Arizona, in the last days of exam week to compete in a nation-wide tournament. The girls were very spirited and supportive of each other throughout the season, and their hard work paid off with their consistent wins.

BALLIN' BEARS

MS BBALL

The A team had some tough games this season, but they never gave up hope. Coach Ward said, "It was exactly what our team needed tonight. Woodland is one of the better teams in our area, and competing with them will light our fire over the holiday break!", when talking about the Woodland game. The JVA team had many victories this season, with notable defense by Katherine Ferguson, Campbell Markham and Hope Herline at their WMS game. Both teams gave their all at every game, and dominated their way to victory against the Ensworth enemy. Both the JVA and the A Team made contributions towards winning their games, and the season turned out great.

US LACROSSE

The Bears lacrosse team had a fantastic season this year, with lots of wins to amp up their record. They started strong and ended even stronger, even when losing to arch-enemy, Ensworth High School. The first half of that game they were down 0-4, but they brought it back the second half by scoring seven goals and only losing by one point in the end. Although this team is usually stronger in the second half they are intense throughout the entirety of all their games. They traveled to Chicago and played some of the toughest teams in the country. All of these girls deserve another ring for their work in the 2009 season.

US SOFTBALL

This year's Upper School Softball team had a great season. They started off strong with Juniors Katie Martin and Marianna Weaver hitting home runs for Harpeth Hall for the first time in fifteen years in their game against Father Ryan High School. Then, they proceeded to shut out Ensworth High School, beating them 7-0. Markesha, the only senior, was a great leader and provided a good example for all of the girls. The softball team had a great season, despite the many cancellations because of rain. Polly Linden was a great coach again this year and led the team to an extremely successful season.

The Harpeth Hall and Montgomery Bell Academy joint production of the musical, Zombie Prom, opened September 4, 2008. Zombie Prom is set at Enrico Fermi High, a school located in a town with a nuclear plant. The musical tells the story of the forbidden love between two teenagers: the sweet and innocent Toffee, played by Margaret Burrus, and the orphaned and rebellious Jonny (without an "h") Warner, played by Corbin Williams. When Toffee's parents and the school principle, Miss. Delilah Strict, do not approve of Jonny, Toffee has no other option than to break up with him. He is so crushed by the breakup that he jumps into radioactive materials at the nuclear plant and dies. Jonny later realizes how much he loves and cares for Toffee, so he returns from the dead as a zombie. While Jonny struggles to win back Toffee's love as a zombie, he also has to convince Miss. Strict to let him complete his senior year and take Toffee to the prom.

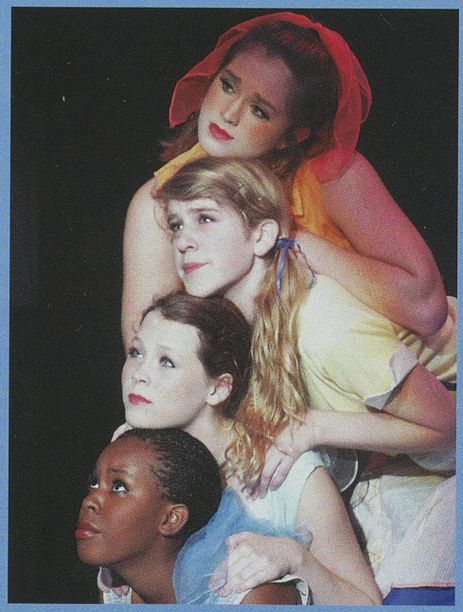
Jean Broadhurst sings and dances to "Rules, Regulations, and Respect"

Ellen Thomas singing with her fellow classmates.

Claudia Crook takes control of the choir and leads them in a catchy ensemble.

Aline Dushimire and Corbin Williams show off their "zombie" skills.

The sugar and spice girls: Annalee Mueck, Jean Broadhurst, Ashley Hayden and Aline Dushimire ponder the situation.



"Jonny don't go to the nuclear plant– Jonny don't go!"

Chrous

"The play abounds with broad stereotypes and awareness of their harm."

Cal Fuller, Director

"'Here's to High School, how it flies...to the bonds and to the ties.' Because the musical ended way too fast and I made so many long-lasting relationships and bonds."

Below: Jason, played by Corbin Williams, chats with the kids during a final rehersal.

Right: Medea is in complete shock after finding out she has not only been betrayed by Jason, but also exiled from Corinth.

Right: After being exiled, Medea asks Aegis for a place to stay.

Below: Medea poisons the princess's cape and crown to revenge Jason.

This year's fall production of the Greek tragedy, Medea, was performed October 31 through November 1. The show begins after Medea, played by Mary Hampton Elam, was abandoned by her husband, Jason, who left her for the King, Creon's, daughter. Medea becomes obsessed with seeking revenge on Jason which results in her being exiled from Corinth. Her anger soon takes over and her only goal becomes making Jason's life miserable. Her wrath finally drives her to insanity and she decides the only way to punish Jason it to kill their only two kids as well as his new wife. The performance left the audiance feeling terrified by the plot, yet moved by the impeciable portrail of the tragedy.

Katie Best, the first woman of Corinth, is worried by Medea's rash actions.

Christina Chapman looks for answers as the second woman of Corinth.

Emily Smith, the third woman of Corinth, becomes distressed with Medea's problems.

Right: Frankie, played by Willa Fitzgerald, begs for guidance from her deceased mother.

"FOR THE LAST TIME, I AM NOT HAVING HOT FLASHES!"

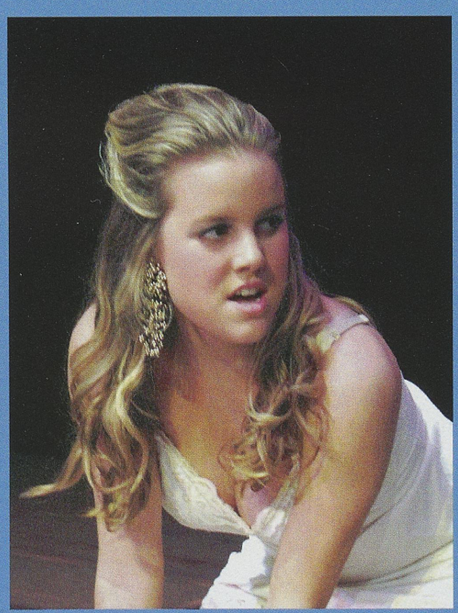
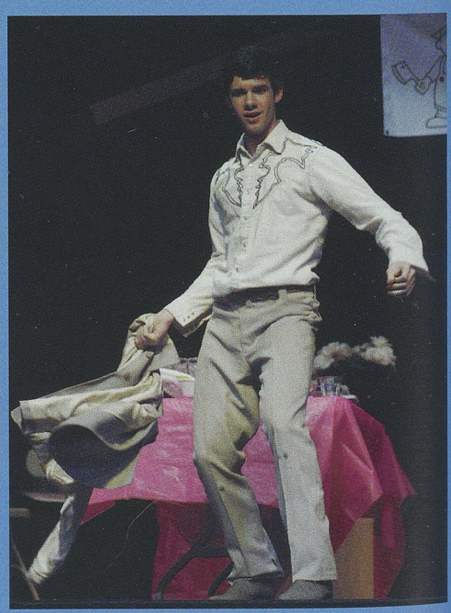
Geneva played by Katie Best

"Patsy, welcome to the family. We draw names at Christmas. I hope I get yours!"

Honey Raye



Honey Raye, played by Christina Chapman, glares at her sisters while having a hot flash.

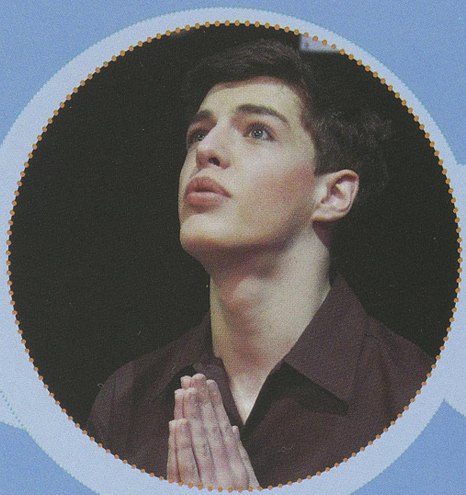


Ryan Penney, Twink's drugged boyfriend, breaks it down at the end of the performance.

Patsy, played by Claudia Crook, leaves a vicious voicemail for her son after he takes her money and elopes.

Gina Jo, played by Lizzy Floyd, daydreams about falling in love with Justin, played by Ford Altenbern.

Ford Altenbern, as Justin the UPS guy and priest, prepares himself to perform the wedding.



Dearly Beloved took place February 26, 27, and 28, 2009. The story begins as the town of Fayro, Texas prepares for Tina Jo and Parker's Gone With the Wind style wedding. Everything that could go wrong is slowly happening: the priest can not attend, so Justin, a UPS guy, is brought in to perform the ceremony, Twink, the bride's aunt has arranged for Clovis Sanford's House of Meat to cater the potluck style reception, Wiley, Twink's boyfriend, gets drugged on over the counter pain killers, and lastly, the bride and groom have run off, leaving the family to entertain the crowd until they are found. Meanwhile, Frankie, the mother of the bride, believes her husband is having an affair, and Patsy, the mother of the groom, is trying to break up the couple and call off the wedding. Luckily by the end, they all come together as they discover the couple is already married and Frankie is pregnant. This comedy about love, marriage, and sisterhood kept the crowd laughing and talking in a country accent.

Middle Right: Annalee Mueck as Nelda, the fortune teller, predicts Twink's, played by Blythe Cate, fate with Wiley.

Right: Miss Geneva, played by Katie Beach, Honey Raye, played by Christina Chapman, Frankie, played by Willa Fitzgerald, and Twink, played by Blythe Cate embrace each other when Frankie decides to renew her wedding vows.

Scottie, played by Aline Dushimire, is worried Ed will not be able to hold his breathe long enough.

Jennifer, played by Liz Floyd, nervously tries to remember her lines during her tryout.

Meg, played by Ellen Thomas, teaches Jennifer to be a strong and confident woman.

This year, the Theatre II class put on a series of one act plays titled "Choices". The production is an opportunity for students who are usually found on the stage to get a taste of what it feels like to be a director. The students pick their plays, cast their actors, and shoulder the responsibility that comes with being the director. Although directing is a nerve-wracking experience filled with fears of failure and the responsibility that comes with leading peers on stage, each director did a phenomenal job. The directors this year were Parker Davis ("The Second Beam"), Lindsey Myrick ("Lockdown"), Annalee Mueck ("Science Project"), Jean Broadhurst ("Hold for Three"), and Laura Gregory ("Beauty"). The shows were as varied as they come, and because of this they each added something special to the whole night. In the end their hard work paid off, because the show was a huge success.

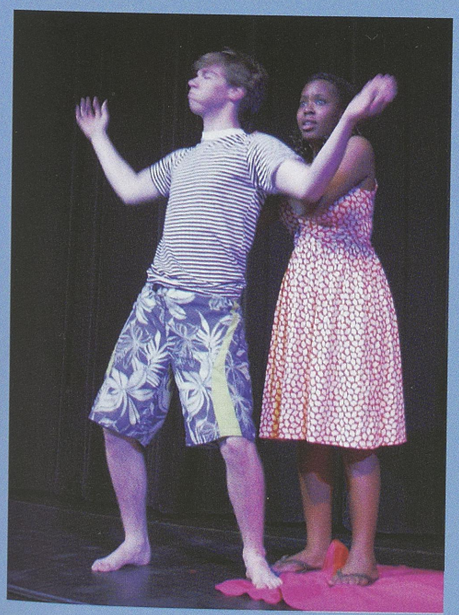
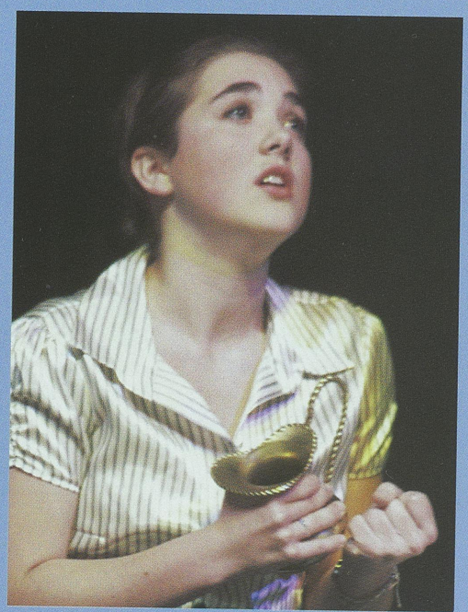
Top: Yellow (Lilly Carver), Green (Claire Crawford), Blue (Anna Carro), Red (Abby Smith), Orange (Phillip Danieley), and Purple (Hunter Woolwine) discuss the issues of their failed science project, Earth, in "Science Project".

Bottom: Ryan Penney serenades the audience with "Save the Last Dance for Me".



Above: Ed, played by Matt Moynihan in Hold for Three, tries to hold his breathe until the moon rises while Scottie, played by Aline Dushimire, holds him up.



Above: Bethany, played by Katie Beach, desperately wishes she could be as beautiful as Carla.

"The experience was "one that helped me grow as a leader. Suddenly I was the one making the decisions. It was terrifying because my show dealt with very mature themes, so I had a lot of work to do. I am really glad I did it, because in the end it looked great"

Lindsey Myrick, Director of "Lockdown"

"The One Acts were one of the most fun things I have ever done in theater, and I hope that by some trick of fate I will get to direct again!

Jean Broadhurst, Director of "Hold for Three"

"I told you that little lizard was trouble! Never trust a creature that has the ability to regenerate its own tail."

Favorite Line of Amna Asad, Hun soldier

Shan-Yu, the Hun leader, played by Anne Gray Thornburg, pounds her chest as she scares off the Emperial Army.

Mushu, played by Lizzie Boston, jumps at the thought of being able to help Mulan defeat the Huns.

Bottom Left: The Emperor, played by Reagan Alley, summons the crowd to watch as she awards Mulan with an award for saving the Emperial City.

Right: Mulan, played by Sarah Hill, captivates the audience as she sings about the struggles of being a woman in the army.

Right: Hayley Gammons, Adelaide Morphett, Morgan Denz, Camilla Zafar, and Daisy Davis light up the stage with their colorful banners.

Right Middle: Claire Pakis who played Captain Shang remarks "It is the biggest rush while on stage, you are shaking at first, but then it just all feels natural and amazing!"

"Let's get down to business to defeat the Huns" rang though the school hallways as girls quoted this year's Middle School Musical, Mulan Jr. The musical opened January 30 and played through January 31. The story begins as Mulan enters the Emperial army in place of her crippled father. Mulan, never being very girly, cuts her hair and struggles to act and sound like a boy. When the truth is revealed that she is indeed a girl, she is almost executed, but the army soon realizes they can not win without her. With her feminine insight, determination, and a lot of hard work she manages to defeat the Huns and save the Emperial City. In the end, Mulan not only brings honor to her family, but also falls in love with Captain Shang. The cast had the crowd laughing to witty lines and singing along to the entertaining, upbeat songs!

Charlotte Hughes and Maggie Patterson reflect wistfully over the fate of Mulan.

On March 10, 2009 the Middle School Drama Club put on the show "What on Earth is Happening?" The play is based on the Greek myth of how the seasons came to be. It all begins with the disappearance of Demeter's daughter, Persephone, who has been captured by Hades, the ruler of the underworld, and made into the queen of the underworld. When Demeter, the goddess of harvest and plenty, realizes her daughter is missing, she refuses to do her duties until she is found. Meanwhile on Earth, the plants die rapidly and the rivers dry up. The shepherds and townspeople do not know why the gods are causing them so much suffering. So the quest to find Persephone begins as the people of Delphi, shepherds, nymphs, townspeople, gods, and goddesses come together to find her. When she is finally found, peace is restored on earth and everyone lives happily.

Jhe'Dienne Adams, Pella, is mad that Hades captured Persephone.

Eliza Trost, Lo, acts scared because she thinks the earth might never return to normal.

Zoe Adamson, Hermes, is all smiles when they finally find Persephone.

Paige Colaberdino is careful not to knock off her crown in her role of the greek god, Zeus.

Olivia Smith, Lydia, scowls while holding flowers during a scene in the play.

"I didn't really like Greek plays that much until I came to the honey bear territory. I can't wait until the middle school musical, because my experience on stage has so far been a perfect opportunity for me to strut my stuff in the spotlight."

Thalia, Emma Pruett

"We were practicing and Zoe Adamson, Hermes, was saying a line. She was supposed to become scared and scoot back in her seat but instead she fell strait on her bottom. We all thought it was funny and we ended up using it in the show."

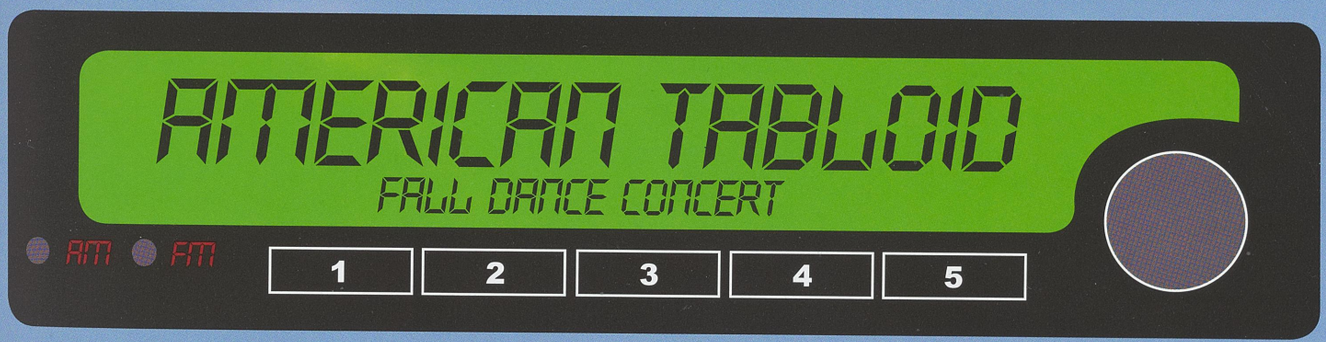
The fall dance concert – American Tabloid: Highlighting American Regions and Cultural Idioms- included an array of pieces varying in genres and dance styles. Dancers from 5th grade to 12th worked countless hours to put on an astounding show including pieces from hip-hop to ballet. A special feature this year was a performance by the newly formed choreographing company open to juniors and seniors of the First Company who each contributed to the piece they performed called



"Move." A crowd favorite according to sophomore Lindsey Myrick was the Upper School hip-hop dance performed to "Disturbia" by Rihanna. She praised: "It was really fun to watch! I especially liked the part when the dancers became puppets!" The energetic end to the concert was "Four Minutes" recorded by Madonna and Justin Timberlake and choreographed by a new member of the dance instructors: Jennifer Jackson. Other hard working directors include: Stephanie Hamilton, Joyce Smith, Kelly Grider, Danny Neelon, Kelli Gore Reeves, Mary-Evelyn Drungo, Stacie Flood-Popp, Jennifer Harwell and Emily Berry.

On December 5th in the Patton Visual Arts building, the Upper School music groups performed an eclectic mix of musical arrangements. The concert started out with the Chamber Orchestra, playing everything from the calming "Blue Danube" to the dramatic "Winter: from the Four Seasons" by Antonio Vivaldi. After the Orchestra performed, Nancy Turner, Director of choral Music, conducted the Concert Choir in the annual tradition of singing "Night Of Silence." Later, the Chamber Choir sang the crowd favorite, "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy". Lastly, "Dean's List" ended the concert as they rocked out to "For Once in my Life," by Stevie Wonder, and "Levon," by Elton John, which were two of the most popular of the night!

The Middle School put on a great show to follow on December 8th. From the bands to the orchestras to the choirs, everyone was in pitch and on key. Strings, percussion and vocal chords filled the theater with beautiful music.

Rather than squeeze through violinists, a cellist, and the occasional music stand, Sabin began stepping across the aisles on top of those long table-things to make her way to the front of the Richards Room.
Mr. Martelle yelled "STOP! Don't do that! You're gonna get me fired!" A few people snickered as Sabin got off the table and took "the long way" down to the front of the Richards Room.
A few minutes later DJ had to adjust a speaker volume at the front, and began stepping across the aisles on top of the long table-things to make his way to the front of the Richards Room."

The Music Concerts for the Middle and Upper Schools took place May 11 and 12. The rock band, orchestras, and choirs came together for the concert and wowed the audience with their musical talent! The rock band, known as Dean's List, got the crowd going with their rocking performance and had everyone dancing in their seats. The tone changed when the choirs began to perform, and everyone in the audience had chills when Jasmine Miller performed her solo. The orchestras finished out the show with their beautiful interpretations and all attendees agreed that the concerts had brought the school year to a close with a flourish!

The Student Art Show opened on April 16, 2009, in the Patton Visual Arts Center, with works of art and photography on display. At least one work by each art or photography student was featured. The Art I students even prepared food to go in the pottery they made! Two Art III students were honored for works that had been featured on the Harpeth Hall holiday card. As visitors strolled through the gallery examining the works on display, everyone was amazed by the creativity and skill of Harpeth Hall students. The show was a great success, stopping many people in their tracks when they entered the building!

Students in the AP art class displayed their portfolios in the Marnie Sheridan Gallery, beginning April 23, 2009. Each student was required to create 12 works, including a composition of at least six pieces in a series. The students raced against the clock all year to meet these requirements. In addition to creating their portfolios, students also wrote a statement about their work, organized their display, and hung their compositions. The show featured two works of art by AP students Jane Marie Brown and Angela Park that had won Gold Key awards at the Scholastic Art Awards. All of the AP art students put in many hours to complete their compositions, and it showed. The artwork was fabulous and the show was a hit!

#Halloween

Below: Several seniors posed for a quick picture in the cold weather before class.

This year, the Harpeth Hall high school students celebrated Halloween a week early with the Halloween Dance on October 25, sponsored by Student Council. The night was full of festivities. Everyone came dressed up in very creative costumes, joined by a couple of their friends from other nearby schools. During the dance, everyone danced the night away to “Thriller” by Michael Jackson and “GhostBusters” by Ray Parker Jr. Amy Bowers, a junior, describes the night as “Fun and exciting; The best Halloween Dance yet!” Several high school teachers made guest appearances such as Dr. Jack, Mrs. Roark, Mr. Tuz, and Mr. Springman as chaperons.

On Halloween Day, the high school students celebrated with a Canned-Food drive, sponsored by the Play Makers Club. Students brought canned-food to dress out for the holiday. The day was also celebrated with candy and a “Boo Bake Off” sponsored by the Cooking Club. In the middle school, students also dressed up in costumes and organized a Halloween Fair for the children of faculty and alumnae.

Throughout the year, the 7th, 8th, and 9th grade hosts several mixers with their grade at MBA. Mixers include bowling, dances, and bonfires. At the mixers, the girls and boys dance the night away to popular songs, their favorites being the "Cha-Cha Slide" and "the Stanky leg." At the mixers, the refreshments are proveded for those who need to take a break from dancing their hearts out. The bowling mixers are often held at Strike and Spare where the girls and boys can bowl or play video games in the arcade. The favorite video games are "Dance Dance Revolution, "the Claw," and "Pac-Man." The bonfires are held in the cold fall and winter months. Fun activites include hay rides, smores, and scary stories. The mixers this year were a definite success and the girls are looking forward to more mixers in the future!

The grandparents and special friends listened and watched a wonderful program in the theatre featuring middle school singers, instrumentalists, and dancers. Many grandparents were recognized for coming the farthest -- California and South Dakota -- and for having the most granddaugthers at Harpeth Hall. Liza Hill's grandparents won the award for having the most granddaughters at Harpeth Hall while Hannah Peterson's grandparents won the award for having the most grandchildren. WALKING IN A WINTERIM WONDERLAND ON CAMPUS

This year's winterim was the thirty-sixth winterim here at Harpeth Hall. Winterim is a wonderful and a very unique program in which students are able to study and take classes that are not traditionally offered at school. Freshmen and Sophomores stay on campus and take classes. These classes help give the students a chance to explore different fields to help them realize what they would like to do in the future or what subjects they would like to pursue. Classes range from French Cooking to the Kennedys and Shakespeare on Stage to Invention and Design. Each student takes four classes and each class meets everyday. Some classes last only one class period while others last for two class periods. At the end of the third week of winterim, a couple classes even did a presentation for the freshmen and sophomore classes. Songwriting for Guitar sang several songs and even produced a CD! Shakespeare on Stage put on quite a show, acting out several excerpts of famous Shakespeare works, and the silent film class even made a short, silent film! This year's winterim was very successful and fun!

OFF-CAMPUS

This year's winterm was another successful experience! During Winterim seniors and juniors have the oppertunity to go on school sponsored trips, exchanges, and internships in town and out of town. The school sponsored trips included Japan, Washington DC, New York City, South Africa, and Italy, and for the first time Fiji. Students on the Japan trip visited Hiroshima; students on the Washington DC trip were able to attend the inaguration of our 44th President; students on the New York City theater trip were able to see several Broadway Plays; students on the South Africa trip went on a safari; students on the Italy trip attended an Italian Language School; and students on the trip to Fiji stayed in a Fijian village for a couple of days. The two exchange trips went to Malaga, Spain and Paris, France. The internships ranged from studying marine biology in Hawaii to working at Channel 4 News and Vanderbilt Children's Hospital to working with Fox News in New York City. Off campus winterim is a wonderful experience for students to explore different professions that they could be interested in, in the future. Madison Jones said the Paris, France exchange was "a once in a lifetime oppertunity!"

Forever on the Dance Floor

Winter Formal this year didn't feel so wintery, the temperature was as warm as the girl's faces when they were dancing. The girls showed up in a rainbow of colors but had one thing in common: they all looked beautiful. With a date or without, long dresses or short; the girls were ready to have fun. Mrs. Teaff and Mr. McPherson stood at the door, ready to welcome the girls, sans uniform, and their dashing dates. The band 24/7 played and was a huge hit. Their timeless renditions of songs never got old, and provided a beat that had everyone dancing. New songs or old, the dance floor was packed with girls singing at the top of their lungs.

The second annual freshman dinner was a huge success, providing the girls with a fun place to go before the festivities started. The delicious food, catered by Pei Wei, supplied the girls with energy they needed to dance the night away. Freshman enjoyed their highly anticipated first winter formal, sophomores used the lessons they learned the previous year to make this experience even better, Juniors learned the art of spending money wisely with prom just around the corner, and Seniors soaked up every moment of their last winter formal.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY GEORGE WASHINGTON DAY

This year the 126th George Washington celebration was on February 19th. The George Washington celebration has been a tradition at Harpeth Hall since the days of Ward-Belmont. Each year, around George Washington's birthday, the 7th grade class puts on a new attire as sailors, soldiers, men, and women, dated from the 1730s. Also included in the tradition is the voting of the 7th grade class to elect two girls to play Martha and George Washington from the 8th grade. This tradition of electing a Martha and George Washington started in 1913 at Ward-Belmont but stopped, and was started up again in 1954. The celebration includes a dance performance from the sailors; a marching performance from the soldiers; a minuet from the guests of the ball; as well as several speeches. Several famous guests include Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, James Madison, Alexander Hamilton, and John Hancock. This year's George Washington celebration was another success!

Father-Daughter Dance

Below: Soul Incision played tunes that were a hit with the fathers and the daughters.

The annual Father-Daughter and Special Friends Dance occurred on Tuesday, April 9, 2009. Although the weather was a little chilly, plenty of girls managed to have loads of fun in their sun dresses and even learn some crazy new dance moves from their fathers. The boat sailed along the Cumberland River passing through downtown Nashville, LP Field, and the Opry Mills Mall. The band, Soul Incision, played for two hours. Popular hits with the fathers and daughters included "My Girl," "I Will Survive," and "Play That Funky Music." The boat left the dock around 6 pm, just in time to watch the beautiful sunset. The dinner included chicken and pasta and a dessert of chocolate mousse or cheese cake. Senior Eleanor Ezell said this year's Father-Daughter and Special Friends Dance was the best one yet! Senior girls left their last Father-Daughter dance with a nostalgic frown on their face, while the 8th grade girls were looking forward to next year's dance!

Under The Eastern Stars

Below: Kathleen Fletcher, Willa Fitzgerald, and Eleanor Ezell take a break from dancing to flash a smile.

"Under The Eastern Stars" was a night to remember. The cafeteria, gallery, and gym were transformed with beautiful Chinese decorations. The junior class began designing the sets months in advance and worked endless days and nights to make everything come together perfectly. Prom build kicked into high gear two days before the event. The junior class worked all day friday and even into the early morning hours with the help of DJ Ranta, Dr. Ufnar, Mr. Myrick, and Mr. Bryant. The cafeteria served as an exotic Chinese restaurant; the gallery as a scene of a classic Chinese village; and the gym became a dance floor illuminated by Chinese lanterns hanging from the ceiling. The junior class officers, senior class, and prom court were presented by Señor Tuz and were presented under a traditional pagoda. After presentation, juniors and seniors danced until their heels hurt to classic songs sung by a live band and found perfect photo opportunities with teachers and friends. The next day, the dedicated junior class reported to the gallery for prom clean up. Everyone seemed to be satifisfied by this picture-perfect prom.

Get Cha' Head in the Game

Powder Puff

Below: Kathleen Riley enters in style on the shoulders of Madeleine Byrd.

For the first time in two years, the senior class won Powder Puff with a final score of 9 to 6. Powder Puff is a tradition at Harpeth Hall in which the seniors play the juniors in flag football. What started off as a friendly game soon turned into a competitive game of tackle football. As each team began to get their "heads in the game," their competitive side came out. For the majority of the game, the juniors had a lead, 6 to 0. It wasn't until the 4th quarter that the seniors began to score points and even got a safety, pushing the juniors back into their own end zone. The game had a late start, due to the absence of referees, but the crowd enjoyed the musical performance of "In Case of Fire," a senior band. Before the game was supposed to begin, each grade split up to tailgate and paint each other to get in spirit. The seniors and sophomores wore pink while the juniors and freshmen wore blue. The night game was a success and had a great turn out. The players, cheerleaders, and crowd all snacked on icees, pizza and cotton candy before and during the game. Hopefully this year brought back the trend of seniors winning Powder Puff.

Almost Alumnae Lunch

Below: Meredith Lawrence and her mother are pretty in pink.

The dreary outside weather did not put a damper on the perpetually bright Almost Alumnae Lunch. This year, the luncheon was moved to Bullard Gym, due to rain. The decorations were colorful and cheery, just like the seniors' dresses. The mothers and seniors dined on delicious food and yummy desserts. Alumnae Judge Ellen Hobbs Lyle was among the women who spoke about finding a balance between having a distinguished career and a family. Shaye Sullivan, the senior class president, made an inspirational speech about the transformation of this wonderful class. After several enlightening speeches, the mothers read personal letters from the seniors. The seniors wrote about how inspiring their mothers are in their lives which caused waterworks. The tears were as prevalent as the rain outside the luncheon.

We Are The Champions

MS Field Day

Below: Ariston vigriously pulls on the rope during tug-of-war.

As May 22nd approached, the middle schoolers began to prepare themselves for a day of friendly competition. Every girl dressed accordingly to her club: blue for Angkor, yellow for Ariston, green for Eccowasin, and red for Triad. The day began with a quiz bowl in the auditorium in which each club nominated girls to participate in answering puzzling questions. Angkor won the quiz bowl, with Eccowasin taking second place. Next, the competition was moved outside where girls rotated around different activities including musical Hula-Hoops, relay races, and a Moonbounce race. The most challenging task was one in which fellow club-mates had to plug holes inside a pipe, while filling the pipe up with water, without getting wet. After rotating around the different activities, the girls divided up into clubs and competed in the infamous tug-of-war. At the end of the day, all of the girls were able to put their differences aside and hang out and enjoy a nice, cold icee. After the quiz bowl, activities, and tug-of-war, Angkor managed to win the 2009 middle school field day while Ariston got 2nd place.

US Awards Day

Below: Triads singing and dancing to "Love Train," or as they said "Bug Train."

Although this year's upper school Awards Day had a little problem with the weather, it still went on. At the upper school Awards Day, the highest achieving juniors and seniors are recognized with book awards, art awards, and subject awards. As soon as the different awards are given out, each club competes in performing a song with different lyrics. Triads chanted to "Love Train," Eccowasin danced to "Toxic," Angkor boogied down to "Soul Man," and Ariston got groovy with "I Will Survive." Before each club competes with a song, special awards are given out, recognizing the highest achieving juniors and seniors. The winner this year was able to capture the enthusiasm of the teacher's hearts in "Bug Train." Shortly after the Triad club captains accepted their award, it began to rain cats and dogs, relocating the ceremony to the auditorium. In the auditorium, several more awards were given out as well as the announcing of the Lady of the Hall and the class representatives. This year's Lady of the Hall was Emily Carpenter.

MS Honor Day

Below: Allie Morris, Nora Kaboulov and Cooper Powell grab their silhouettes as they say goodbye to their middle school years.

At Harpeth Hall, there are two celebrated graduations: high school graduation and middle school graduation. The middle school graduation celebrates the girls' completion of the eighth grade and their transition to high school. This year's middle school graduation was held on Memorial Day morning, May 25, 2009. The ceremony was beautiful and was held in the auditorium. To mark the girls' passage into the high school, the fifth and sixth grade sang a song, encouraging the girls to "Climb Ev'ry Mountain." The seventh graders sang "I am a Small Part of the World" reminding the girls that they are a small part but together, they can achieve great things. This year, each eighth grade girl was asked to list three accomplishments to include in the program. Accomplishments included sports awards, a role in the school play, academic achievements and activities outside of Harpeth Hall. Each girl also completed a beautiful silhouette during their trimester in art, which was displayed in the gallery for Honor Day to symbolize their eighth grade selves. This year's eighth grade class was outstanding and very hard working. Congratulations and have fun in high school!

The World's Greatest

Step Singing

Below: Seniors cheered their senior song one last time as seniors after the ceremony.

Despite weather conditions, step singing was still a joyful ceremony. Step Singing originated at Ward Belmont and the tradition has since lived at Harpeth Hall. The ceremony involves the senior class handing over their leadership to the junior class. The junior class takes a pledge saying that they will leave the school in better condition than they received it. The tradition also involves the senior and junior class singing a class song. The seniors sang "The World's Greatest" by R. Kelly and the juniors sang "All You Need Is Love" by the Beatles. Step Singing also involves the recognition of the Lady of the Hall with her ring bearers and class representatives. Emily Carpenter, Lady of the Hall, gave a touching speech as well as the chosen speaker who was Harpeth Hall Alumna, Catherine Workman '97. Traditionally the ceremony is held on Souby Lawn but because of rain, it was relocated to the auditorium. The class representatives were Madeline Wiseman 12th grade, Sara Schott 11th grade, Caroline Miller 10th grade, Claire Crawford 9th grade, Alexis Hawkins 8th grade, Rebecca Morris 7th grade, Samantha Flynn 6th grade, and Margot Dupuis 5th grade.

As we go on, we remember...

US Graduation

Below: At the end of the ceremony, the girls cheered "Are you a senior? NO!"

Despite the rainy conditions the day before, the sunny weather permitted an outside graduation. Upper school graduation took place on the same day as the middle school graduation, but later in the afternoon. It is a tradition at Harpeth Hall for the girls to wear beautiful long white dresses and have the ceremony held on Souby Lawn. Having the ceremony on Souby Lawn is only appropriate for the girls because they have come to know and love the Harpeth Hall campus and graduation on Souby Lawn offers them one last time to admire the beauty of Harpeth Hall. Family members and friends came to watch the ceremony. Student Council President, Sabin Nettles, opened the ceremony with the invocation followed by the chamber choir performance of "For Good," from a Broadway musical. Madeline Wiseman, the elected class speaker, spoke of how her grade has changed, for the better. Next the diplomas were handed out, and many friends and family members cheered their graduates on, some with blow horns. The ceremony was lovely and all the girls looked beautiful. Congratulations class of 2009!

##CANDIDS!

Below: Becky Smith, Natalie Reiman, Haley Caulkins, Kili Walsh, Lizzie Boston, Miranda Ronnow, Catherine Ferguson, Anne Gray Thornburg, Alex Thornton, and Alison Zhong pose in front of the White House.

The girls at Harpeth Hall know how to work hard and focus, as well as have fun! Each day, every girl is able to walk around campus with a huge smile on her face. "I love being able to act crazy around my friends without anyone judging me," says Junior Mary Allyn Johnson. While at school, each girl is able to have a serious but relaxed and fun environment in the classroom, ideal for learning. Vivid memories of the surprise performance from the Vanderbilt Dodecs, free X-Blocks, Cooking Club Bake-offs, dance and play teasers, the Halloween Day creepers on the roof of Souby Hall, Pi-Day, Lookin' Swine in '09, and the many trips to the College Counseling office for candy stick out in the high schoolers' minds as the end of the year draws near. For middle schoolers, vivid memories of the Talent Show, Field Day, Ms. Clark's Civil War reenactments with markers, Biz Town, Cousin Sam, watching "Dead Poet's Soceity," and the infamous Washington Trip linger in the minds of the middle schoolers. This year has been stellar with a plethora of exemplary memories!

To you, Liz and Kath,
our lovely daughters—

You arrived together, it seems only months ago, now off you go on paths ever more separate. When the road is bumpy, an when it's smooth, we hope your special bond remains strong and sustains you on your way, as if you were one traveler.

We're so very proud of you both.
God's blessings, and all our love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Haley Clare...

"If everything happens that can't be done (and anything's righter than books
could plan)
the stupidest teacher will almost guess (with a run skip around we go yes)
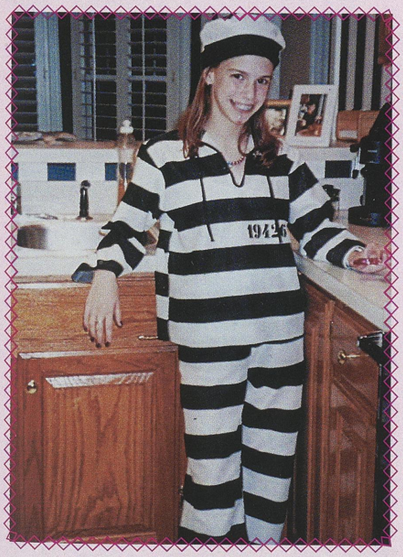
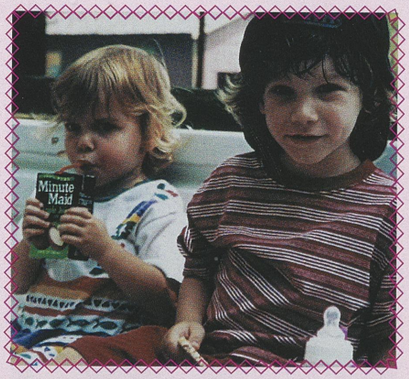
there's nothing as something as one"

E.E. Cummings





And you are MORE than righter!

We love you!

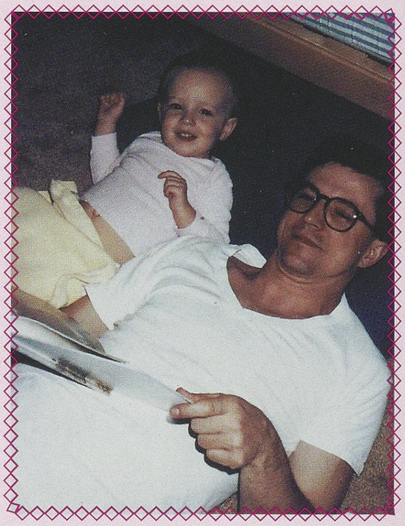
A Cradle Song

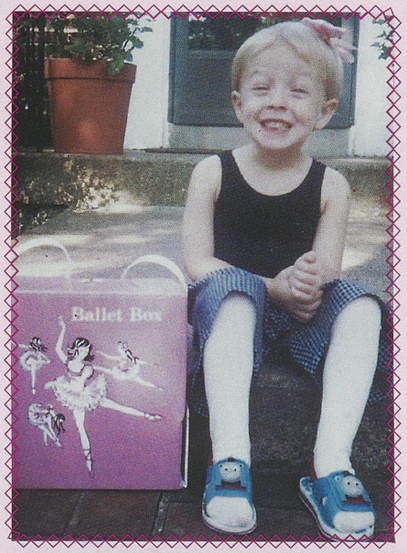
By: W.B. Yeats

The angels are stooping
Above your bed...

God's laughing in Heaven
To see you so good....

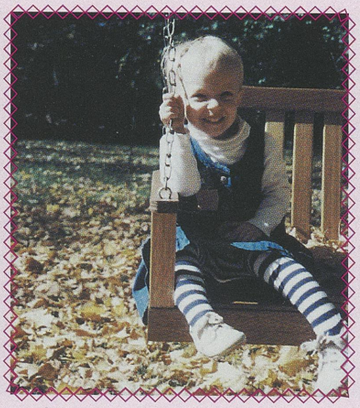
I sigh that kiss you,
For I must own
That I shall miss you
When you have grown.

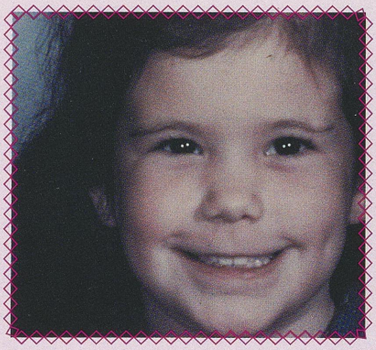




Ryllis—Congratulations on graduating and entering college. We will always be here for you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

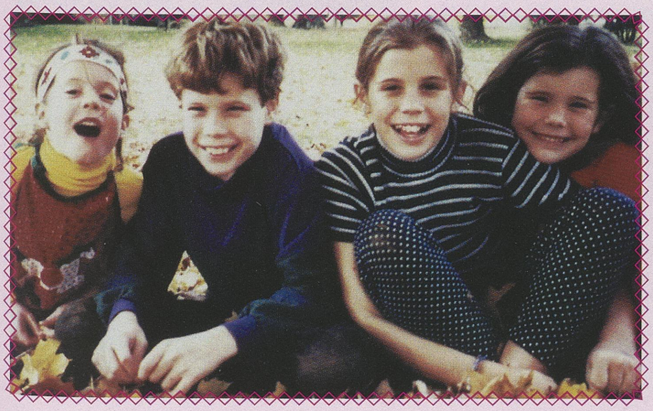


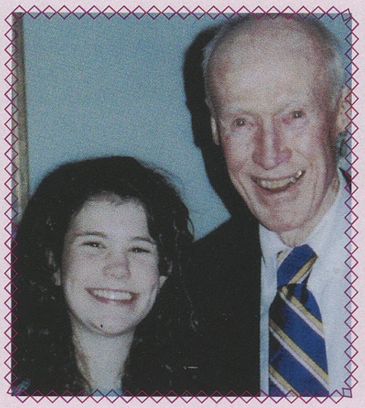


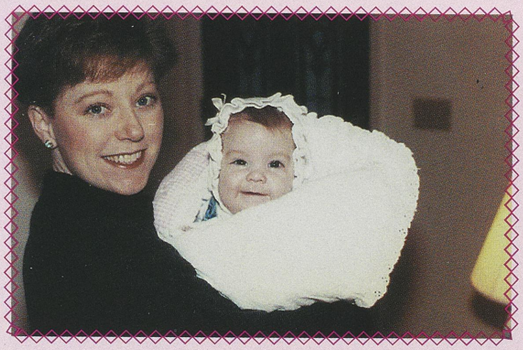
Madeline

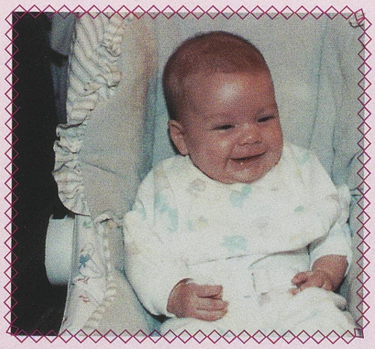
"Some peepo don't hab minds. I hab a mind. God gabe me one...Mom, these are great undies! They haven't given me a single wedgie!...I'm really sad to be leaving six. I did a lot of fun things when I was six...I want to be a famous swimmer and a beautician, so I can have all the makeup I want. I'm also thinking about getting a lot of children...Kate, wake up! There's a tornado warning! That means there's a big round tunnel that's going to blow off the top of our house!... Mom, we're having a compromission–we're compromising...You know the saying 'An obedient dog is a happy dog'? Well it's the same with parents. An obedient parent has a happy child...I hurt myself on a sharp chocolate chip!...I mean, I really like playing the piano. But I don't think I'll go pro on it...When I get older and retire from being President of the United States, I want to help children who can't do the things that I can do...Did you know that when I blink my whole head moves because my ponytail's so tight?"

We love you, Madeline!

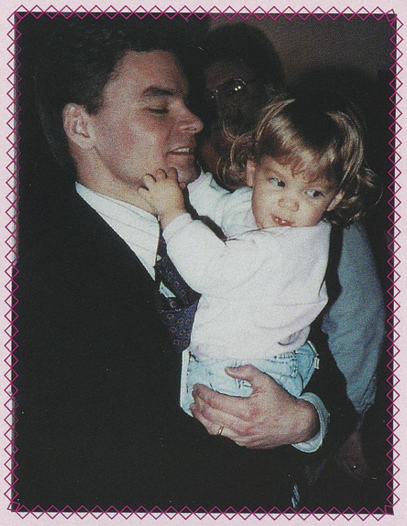






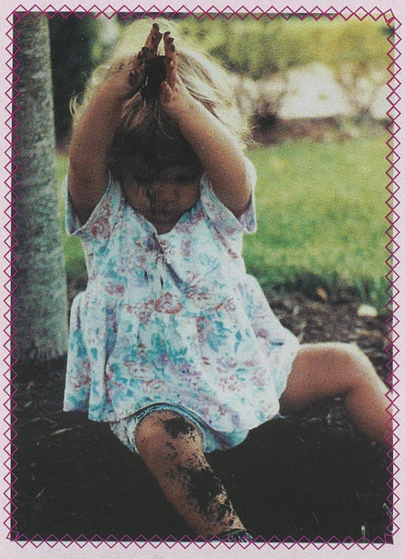


Brenna



We are so proud of you. Not only of your academic and athletic achievements, but more importantly, of the person you've become. As you move on to this next phase of your life, some things you already know but we offer as reminders—

Live your life. Follow your heart. Dance if you feel like it. Learn always. Laugh often. Read constantly. Value each day. Be kind to all. Trust your intuition. Be decisive. Work hard. Travel and explore. Expect respect. Have faith. Cherish differences. Be dependable. Be spontaneous sometimes. Take calculated risks. Be conservative with your money but liberal with your ideas. Persevere. Think for yourself. Don't procrastinate. Maintain friendships no matter what. Listen more than you talk. Keep all things in moderation. Look closely so you can see what others do not.



We are so blessed to have you as a daughter and sister. We love you.
Dad, Mom, and Evan

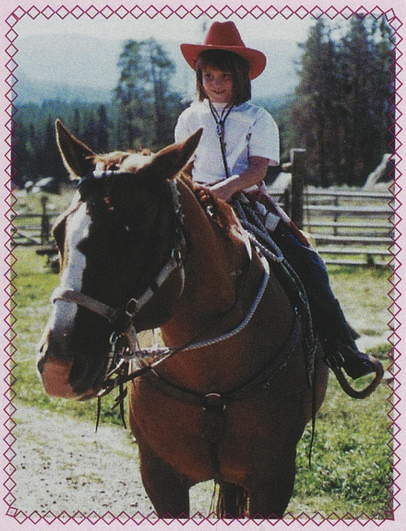
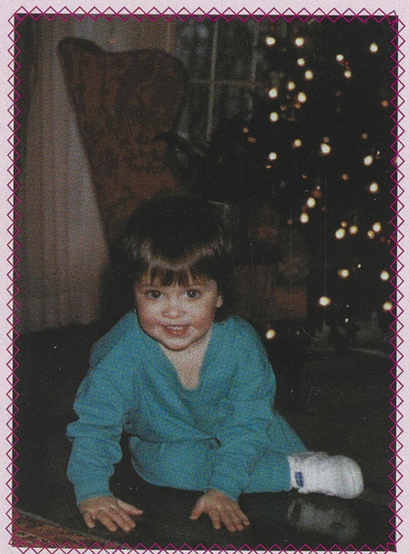
Ann

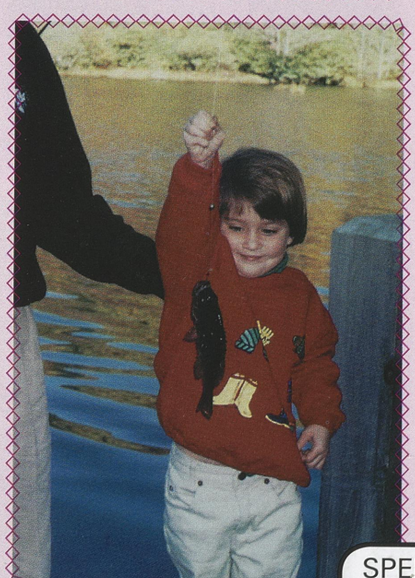


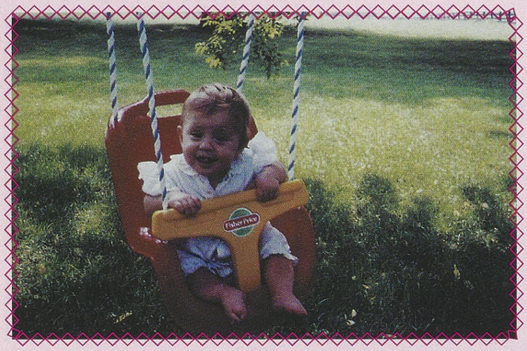
To our dearest Ann,

You are such a joy, and you bring great happiness to our lives. Our love and admiration for you grows deeper with each passing year. We take great pride in all that you have accomplished and look forward to what lies ahead. We will forever treasure all these happy memories in our hearts just as we treasure you. You have become a beautiful, confident, and caring young woman with a very big heart!

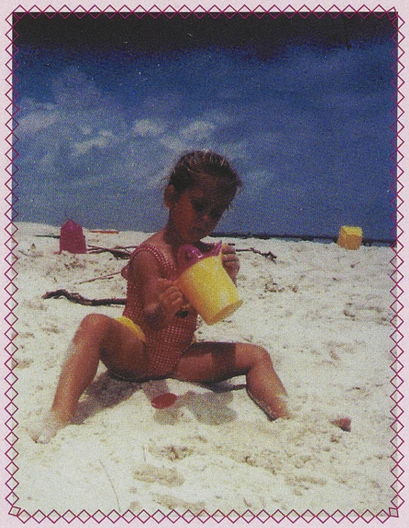
We love you very much,
Mom and Dad







Andee



Andee...

Decide who you want to be...
Be true to yourself...
Always think positive...
Keep your generous heart...
Know the world is yours for asking...
Always take chances...
But most of all--
Know you will always be mom's baby and daddy's girl!

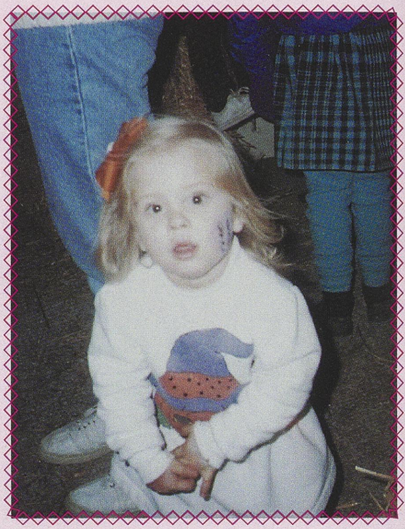
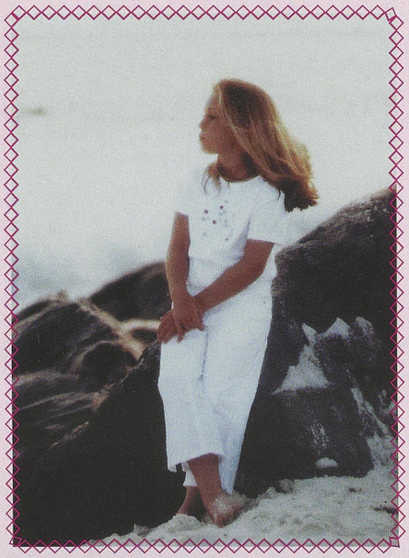
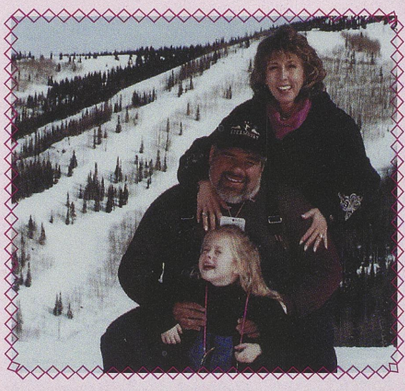
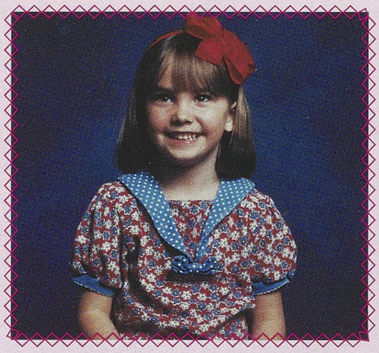
We love you.
Dad, Mom, Sassy, and Oreo









Anna

My child, do not let these escape from your sight:

Keep sound wisdom and prudence, and they will be life for your soul and adornment for your neck.
Then you will walk on your way securely and your foot will not stumble.
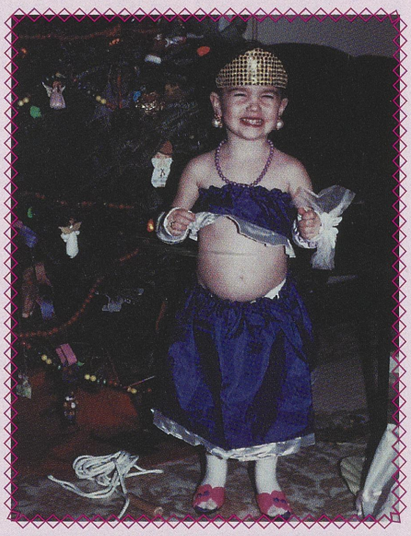
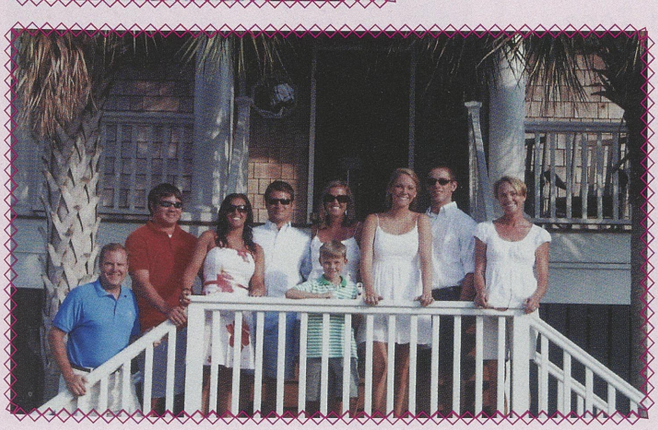
Proverbs 3:21-23

Dearest Anna B,
We are so proud of you for the woman you have become.
We love you.

Love,
Mom and Dad





Callie

"Commit your way to the Lord; trust in Him and He will do this: He will make your righteousness shine like the dawn, the justice of your cause like the noonday sun.

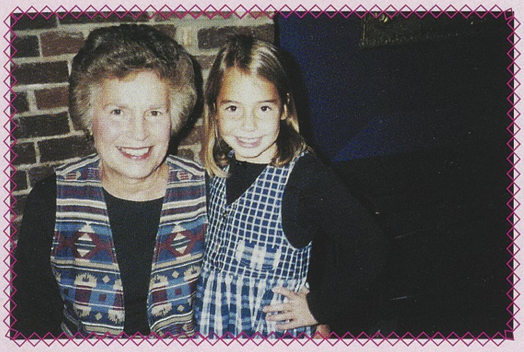
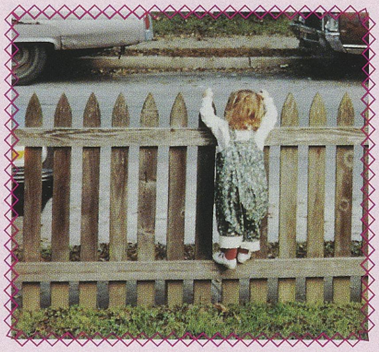
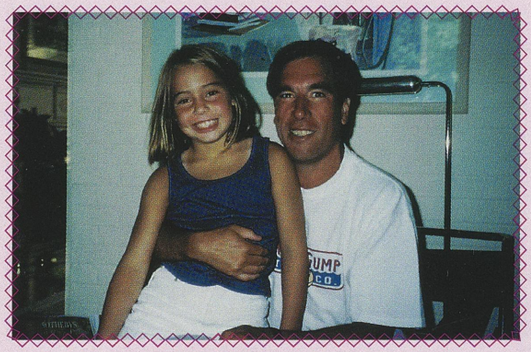
Caroline

"Look you sir,
is it not well done?"
- Lady Olivia, Twelfth Night

Caroline,
Your time at Harpeth Hall was very well done. We love you and are so proud of you.
Mom, Dad, and Jane







Rachel

You don't need directions.
You know which way to go.
And I don't want to hold you back.
I just want to watch you grow.
You're the one who taught me
You don't have to look behind.
Oh yes, sweet darling
So glad you are a child of mine.
-Caroline King

Rachel, I love you dearly!
-Mom

Sometimes I catch her dreaming and wonder where that little mind meanders.
Is she down along the shore or strolling across the broad Savannah's?
I know in time she'll learn to make up her own mind.
In time she's gonna learn to fly.
Oh that I won't deny.
-Jimmy Buffett

Rachel, you will always be the love and muse of my life...!
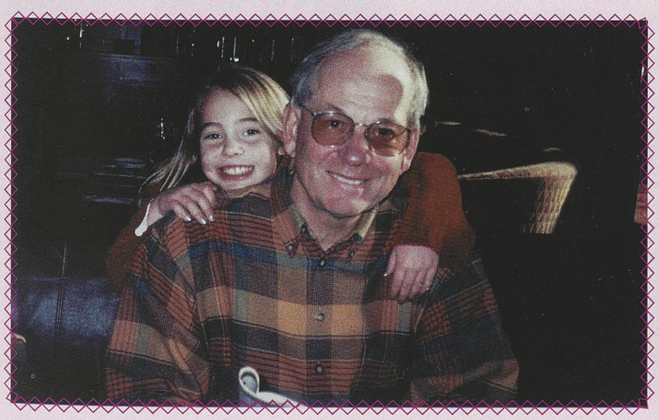
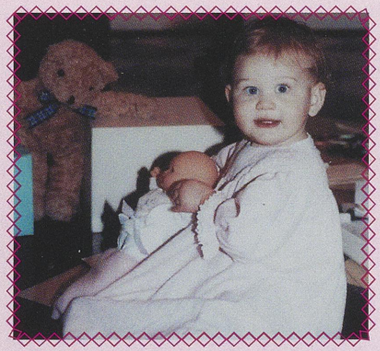
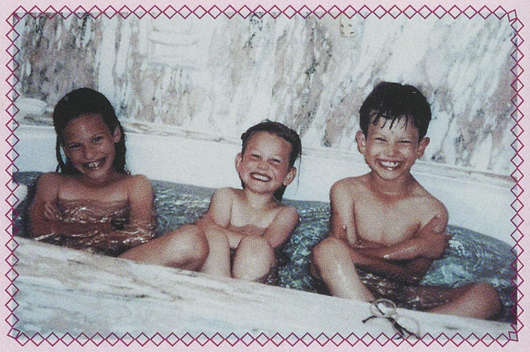
-Dad







Eleanor

Dearest "Lady El,"

We always have,
and always will,
stand beside you and with you,
quietly watching,
supportive,
filled with admiration.
We've loved every moment of watching you become the thoughtful young woman
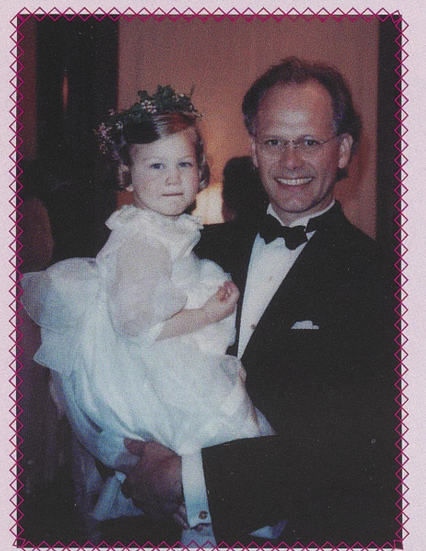
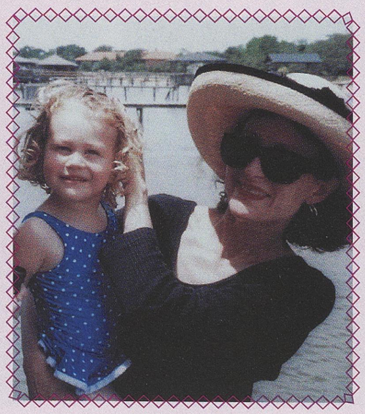
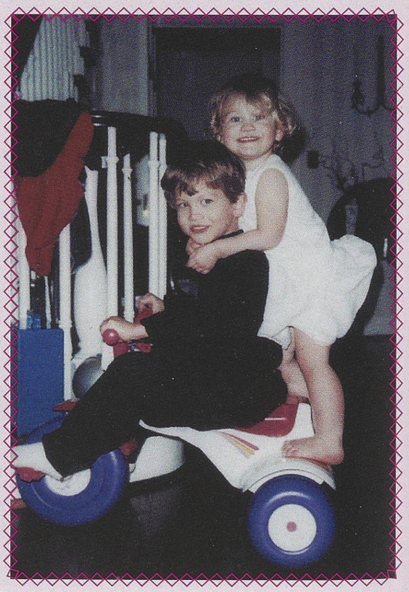
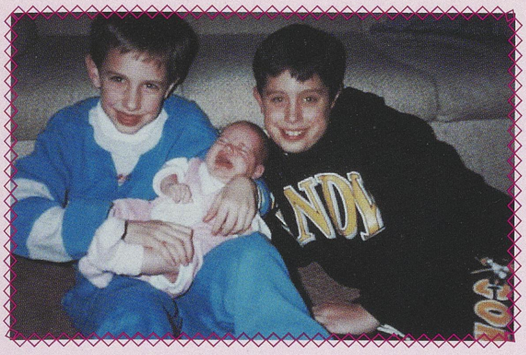
you are.

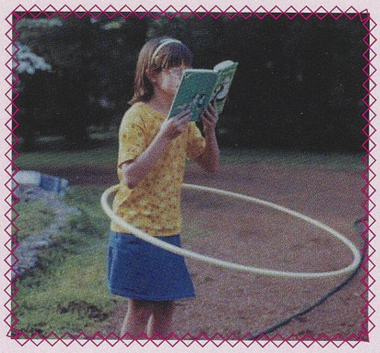
We love you.
Mommie, Daddy,
Lauren & Read











Meredith

Meredith,

You are the light of our lives! From the moment you arrived on this earth, you have brought us nothing but joy. Congratulations-we are so proud of you! And we are certain that wonderful things lie ahead!

Lots of love always,

OH!
THE PLACES YOU'LL GO!

You'll be on your way up!
You'll be seeing great sights!
You'll join the high fliers who soar to high heights.

You won't lag behind, because you'll have the speed.
You'll pass the whole gang and you'll soon take the lead.
Wherever you fly, you'll be the best of the best.
Wherever you go, you will top all the rest.

Except when you don't Because, sometimes,
you won't
(Dr.Seuss)

And when that happens we'll be here for you!
With lots of love from,
Your Proud Family

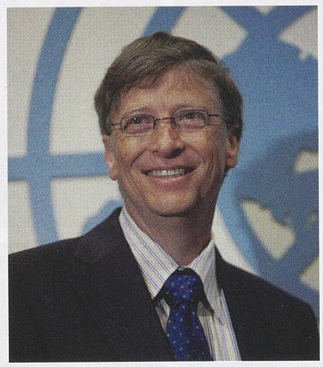
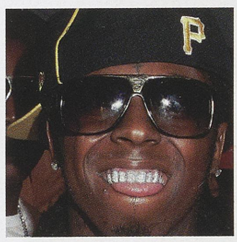
WORLD YEARBOOK

HERFF JONES®

TIGER WOODS won his third U.S. Open title at Torrey Pines, outlasting Rocco Mediate on the 19th hole of a play-off. BILL GATES, Microsoft's chairman and largest shareholder, marked the unofficial end of his career, "retiring" to spend more time guiding his charitable foundation. NASA's space shuttle Discovery landed safely in Florida after delivering a new Japanese laboratory to the International Space Station.

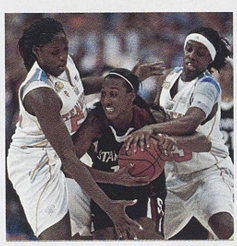


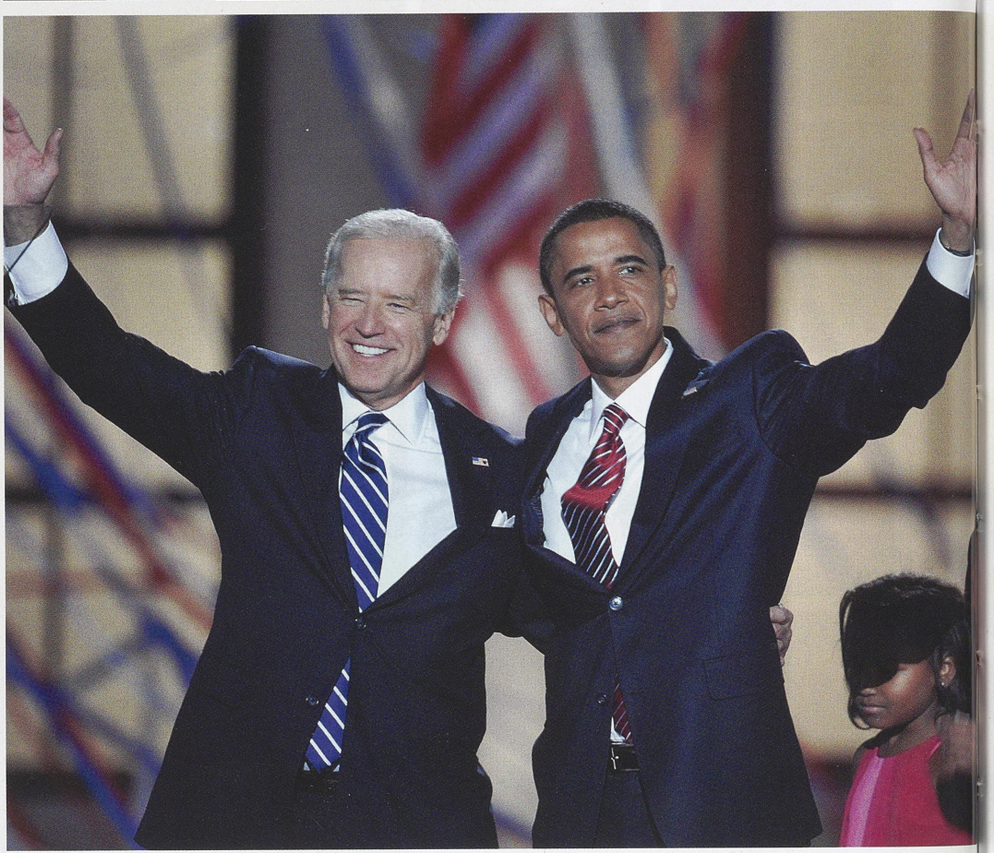
NEW ORLEANS RAPPER LIL WAYNE grew his fan base with free songs, then sold more than a million copies of "Tha Carter III" in a week, the first album since 2005 to do so.



MIDWESTERN FLOODING caused by severe storms that dropped nearly a foot of rain from Iowa to Michigan and Indiana displaced thousands and left at least eight dead.

A TENNESSEE REPEAT made Coach Pat Summit's Lady Vols the NCAA champions for a second consecutive year; Candace Parker won back-to-back MVP honors.





OBAMA'S NOMINATION made history when, on June 3, 2008, Barack Obama finally had what he needed — more than 2,118 delegates — to clinch the Democratic nomination and become the first African-American with a viable chance of winning the United States presidency. Obama, an Illinois senator in office less than four years, and New York senator and former First Lady Hillary Clinton had campaigned from coast to coast for months for the right to face Republican John McCain in the Nov. 4 general election.

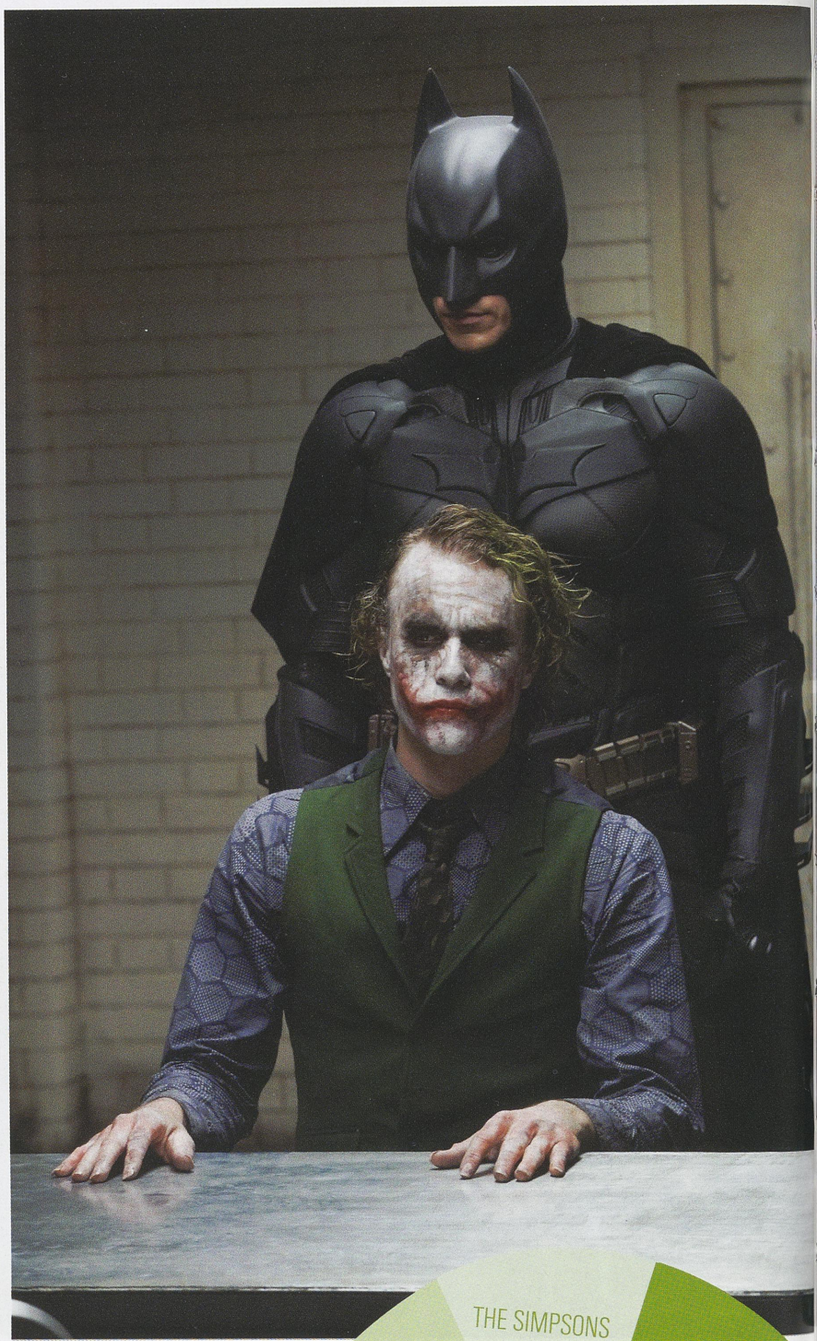
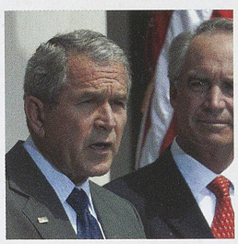
"THE DARK KNIGHT,"

a sequel to Christopher Nolan's "Batman Begins," shattered box office records with its July release. In just 10 days, the superhero thriller brought in more than $300 million at the box office, eclipsing the mark held by "Dead Man's Chest" by nearly a week. Filmed in Chicago, the movie's special effects, musical scores and viral marketing added to its allure and mystique. "The Dark Knight" was nominated for eight Academy Awards, including a posthumous nod for Heath Ledger (for Best Supporting Actor as the Joker). Attempting to enhance its Oscar-winning chances and to surpass $1 billion in worldwide gross, the film was re-released on Jan. 23, 2009.

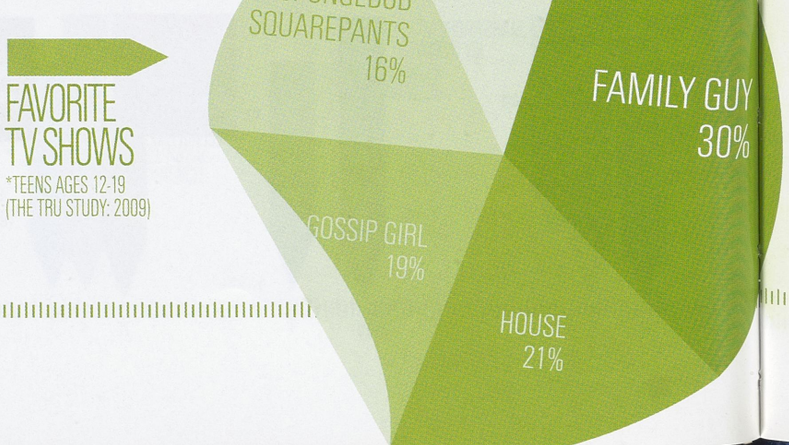


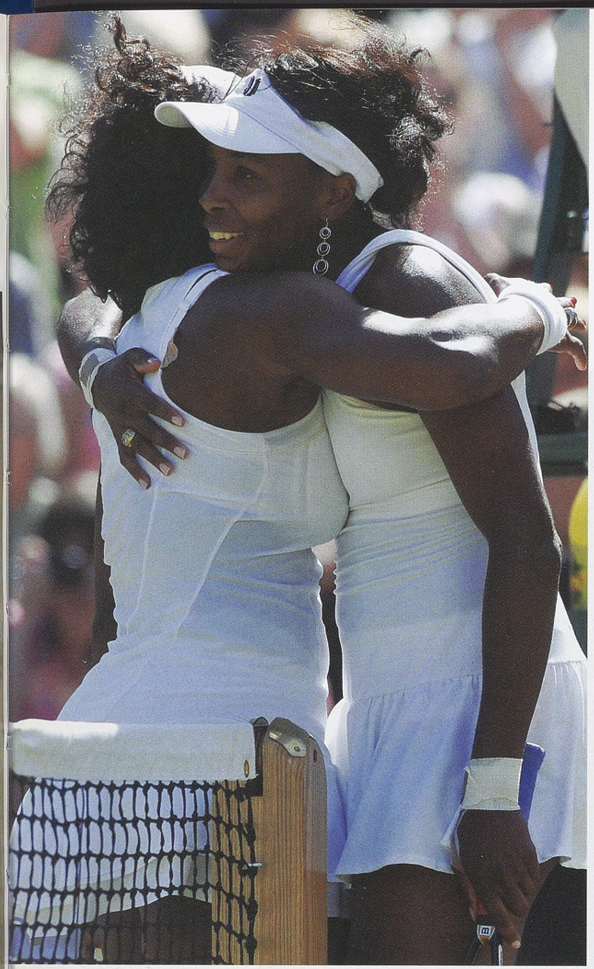
TOUR DE FRANCE winner Carlos Sastre wore the leader's famed yellow jersey on the final day of the three-week race. The Spaniard won the 95th title by just 58 seconds.



PRESIDENT BUSH's noted July legislation included lifting a 17-year ban on off-shore drilling and signing a rescue bill into law, hoping to bolster the sagging housing market.

STARBUCKS ANNOUNCES CLOSINGS of as many as 600 U.S. stores. After years of aggressive growth, the world's largest coffee chain announced cutbacks.





VENUS WILLIAMS defeated sister Serena to win her fifth Wimbledon singles title. The pair beat Lisa Raymond of the U.S. and Samantha Stosur of Australia for the doubles crown.

THE JONAS BROTHERS had a busy summer with the release of both the album "A Little Bit Longer" and their Disney movie "Camp Rock" plus a 46-show tour.

JULY WILDFIRES threatened property across California as firefighters in the Sacramento and Big Sur areas battled flames in 100-degree weather.

TAYLOR SWIFT was the biggest selling artist of 2008, selling more than four million albums. She also performed with Def Leppard in a CMT "Crossroads" episode.

OPENING CEREMONY preparations of nearly seven years culminated in an extravaganza featuring more than 14,000 performers. BERNIE MAC'S DEATH saddened fans of the 50-year-old Chicago comedian/actor.

THE OLYMPICS

meant national pride, athletic competition, pageantry and more. More than 10,000 athletes competed in 300-plus events in 28 sports at 31 competitive venues, many of which had been constructed specifically for the Olympics. An estimated 6.8 million tickets were sold for the various competitions, and the Beijing Olympics was officially the most-watched television event of all time. Through 16 days of coverage, 211 million viewers tuned in to the Olympics on NBC. Among the American success stories were Kerri Walsh and Misty May-Treanor's consecutive golds in beach volleyball, the gold won by U.S. men's basketball team after a disappointing bronze in Athens and swimmer Michael Phelps' eight golds, which brought his lifetime total to 14 Olympic golds.

GOVERNMENT BAILOUTS were back in the news for the first time since the terrorist attacks of 9/11 crippled the already-ailing airline industry. Beginning with a $30 million assist in the March acquisition of financial giant Bear Stearns by JP Morgan Chase, a series of federal aid bills aimed at preventing collapses of myriad finance and investment businesses were signed into effect. In October, President George Bush signed a $700 billion financial bailout package which would allow the government to start buying up troubled assets from financial institutions caught in the home foreclosure epidemic.

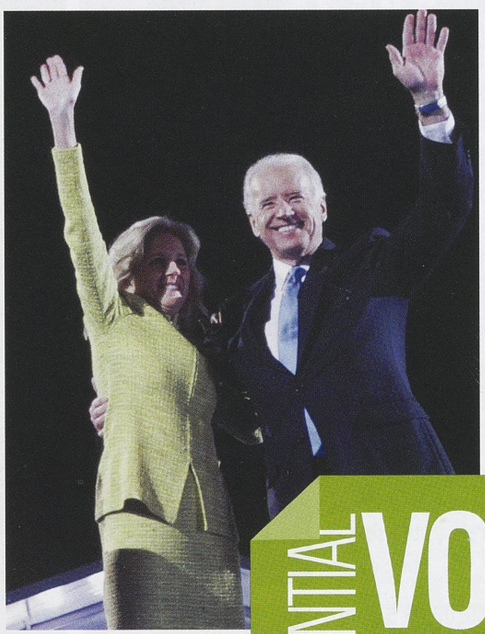
VICTORY SPEECH

Flanked by his wife Michelle and daughters Sasha (7) and Malia (10), Obama addressed the more than 250,000 gathered in Grant Park and millions more who watched on television. "If there is anyone out there who still doubts that America is a place where all things are possible; who still wonders if the dream of our founders is alive in our time; who still questions the power of our democracy, tonight is your answer," he said. Vice President-elect Joe Biden and his wife Jill shared the stage.



SHEPARD FAIREY's collage portrait of Obama became a popular poster and T-shirt during the campaign. Before Inauguration Day, the piece by the L.A. street artist also hung in the National Portrait Gallery. GLOBAL REACTION generally favorable; world leaders and random citizens voiced support for Obama in media worldwide.
